

MAN LYING UNCONSCIOUS WITH VERY LITTLE HOPE THAT HE WILL RECOVER

David Laing Fell While Chasing a Companion
to Chastise Him and Was Dangerously Hurt.

David Laing is lying in a room at the boarding house of Mrs. M. L. Marquis, in Church alley, between Washington and Market streets, in an unconscious condition, with the chances, the physicians say, 10 to 7 against his recovery.

Laing is a single man, 43 years of age, and has been boarding at Mrs. Marquis' for a month. He is employed in the slip house at the Goodwin pottery, but formerly worked in Chester. It is stated that he is a native of Meadville, Pa.

Saturday night Laing and a number of other men who board at the house were drinking heavily. Laing was in a quarrelsome mood and tried to engage in a fight with George Flynn, a teamster in the employ of the Pilgrim Coal company. Trouble was averted for the time, but yesterday morning when Flynn entered the upstairs room occupied by Laing, the latter renewed the quarrel and Mrs. Marquis requested Flynn to leave the place for the time. Laing was very drunk.

Flynn did as requested and had reached the alley when he heard a crash, and turning, saw Laing sprawling at the foot of the stairway, with blood pouring from his nose and ears.

STRIKE OF MINERS AT MARQUET WORKS

NEARLY 100 COAL DIGGERS QUIT
VERY SUDDENLY.

Men Say They Don't Got Union Wages.
Company Disputes
This.

The Marquet Coal company, of New Cumberland, has a strike on its hands. Saturday afternoon 93 miners employed by the company, as well as all the drivers and day men connected with the mine, walked out. There has been trouble between the men and the company for about two years. However, the demands of the miners have always been put off and no settlement effected. The claim of the men is that they are not receiving the union scale of wages. They have been demanding it for so long without receiving any satisfaction that they decided they would work no longer till the difficulty was adjusted. Accordingly all quit work.

The officials of the company claim they are paying the union scale for the kind of coal they are mining and refuse to listen to the complaints of the strikers. As soon as the strike was declared agents were sent out to the various cities and towns around in search of miners. One came to this city and secured seven men who went there today to begin work. He expects to secure more men at Salineville. Later he will go to Cleveland, and there hopes to find all the men necessary.

The threat has been made that the striking miners will refuse to permit the new men to take up the work. It is not thought, however, that serious trouble will result. For a long time the tin mill at Chester was supplied with coal from these mines and at first it was thought that it would be compelled to close down if the strike was not settled at once. Investigation showed that the mill is not depending on its coal supply from this mine, and the work there will not be interrupted.

TO CAMP AT PORT HURON

Gilt Edge Clug Proposes to Spend 30 Days at the Resort Next Summer.

The members of the Gilt Edge Camping club of this city held a special meeting yesterday afternoon in their rooms in the light building for the purpose of completing arrangements for their annual outing, to be held in July. The attendance of the membership was large and they were all enthusiastic over the prospects for a good time again this summer. Last

Mrs. Marquis, who was standing at the landing at the top of the stairway, states that Laing had started in pursuit of Flynn and that just as he reached the head of the stairs tripped and fell headlong. The front door was partly open and it is thought that Laing's head struck it. Other boarders tell the same story.

Flynn was sent to summon a physician, while several of the men carried Laing to his room. Dr. W. W. Hamilton, who responded, found the injured man in an unconscious condition. There had been a hemorrhage in which a quart of blood had been lost through the nose and ears and a contusion was found over the petrous portion of the temporal bone. From these symptoms the physician's diagnosis was that the petrous portion of the temporal bone had been fractured. Owing to the intoxicated condition of the injured man but little could be done for him at the time.

The township trustees were notified of the affair and as Laing is without the means of support they took the case in charge and called in O. D. Shay, the township physician. Dr. Shay's examination verified the diagnosis as given above, and he stated this morning that there is very little hope of Laing's recovery.

Laing had not regained consciousness at a late hour this afternoon.

year the club spent three weeks in July around Port Huron, Mich. Yesterday they decided to spend an entire month this summer at the same place. They expect to leave for Port Huron on July 3 and will remain about 30 days. A complete new outfit is to be purchased, including 10 tents and all the camping paraphernalia necessary. It is the intention of taking only the regular members of the club on this expedition, and all members who expect to make the trip are expected to deposit $5 with the treasurer not later than the 10th of this month. Last year's outing was a success in every way, but preparations are being made so that this year's will far eclipse it in every way.

FINED FOR DISTURBING A RELIGIOUS MEETING

O. L. Mahon Taken Into Custody at
Salvation Army Barracks
And Fined.

While acting in a disorderly manner at the Salvation Army barracks on Fourth street last evening, O. L. Mahon was arrested by Officer Salsberry and taken to central police station, where he placed sufficient money to secure his appearance before the mayor today.

At the hearing he pleaded guilty to the charge of disorderly conduct and was fined $2 and costs. It was through the leniency of Adjutant A. E. Snider, of the barracks, that he escaped with so light a fine. Mr. Snider pleaded for the young man, stating that he did not want him fined for disturbing a religious meeting, thinking the other serious enough.

Staubenville, February 2.—Fire at Brilliant that broke out in the building occupied by William Myers' saloon destroyed two frame buildings occupied by Myers & Kress and Ralston's saloons, a double brick building occupied by Mrs. Catherine Boyles as a residence and Miss Hattie Spaulding's millinery store.

Very little was saved out of any of the business portion and several buildings, including the postoffice, were only saved after hard work by bucket lines. The loss will reach $15,000.

Two Men Arrested For Disturbing a Dance—Others Charged With Drunkenness.

"What is the lineup this morning?" asked a reporter of Mayor Davidson as he entered the executive's sanctum. "Oh! there are plenty of slips here on my desk and several offenders behind the bars, but they are not the kind that help my purse to bulge or make a smile flit across my countenance," replied he. "I tell you they are dead heads, the majority of them, and I don't like to have such visitors."

Officer Dawson played a lone hand and figured in the first arrests of Saturday evening. He was patrolling his beat in the Diamond at about 11 o'clock when rounds issuing from the Seanor block, in which there was being held a dance, attracted his attention. Rushing up to the dancing parlors he gained admittance and caught two young men, John Haymaker and A. C. Stewart, who are said to be doing all in their power to produce a genuine rough house. The fellows were immediately placed under arrest and were given a ride to central station. They furnished security and will answer for their alleged misdemeanor this evening.

Tealide Lodge drank Saturday until it was simply an impossibility for him to navigate or keep his eyelids apart. He did not want to sleep among the horses or cattle in any man's barn and was on the hunt for a first class hotel when, becoming blinded, he accidentally fell into among the very class that he abhors. He was picked up by Officer Woods while sleeping soundly in a haymow of a stable. The mayor gave him a chance to get out and secure work.

Harley Reed was carrying a heavy load when run across by Officer Dunn. He was locked up and a charge of drunkenness filed against him. Harry Martin, of Wellsville, had the same drunk and he was taken in tow by Officer Fisher. Another of a similar class was Jim Smith who fell into the clutches of Officer McDermott.

STRANDED THESPIANS DROP THEIR LAWSUIT

HUNTING FOR HAWKINS COM-PANY LEAVES THE CITY.

Miss Mabel Martin Jubilant Over the Course of Events—Has Learned a Lesson.

The stranded, disbande "Hunting for Hawkins" show troupe has left the city. A part of them, the plaintiffs in the attachment proceedings tried in Squire McCarron's court, departed on the morning train. Miss Mabel Martin, Mr. Raphael and the rest took leave in the evening. They all returned to their homes in New York city.

By their sudden departure the trial, which would have consumed all of today and a part of tomorrow, was called off. It is supposed that the plaintiffs concluded that the evidence in favor of Miss Martin was stronger than they were able to produce and concluded to get out before a hotel bill of enormous proportions piled up against them.

During all of yesterday there was not a more jubilant person in the city than the pool room queen. She felt that she had been exonerated from all suspicion of roguery by the dropping of the case by the plaintiffs and it was with a light heart that she commenced her journey for home and friends where she will likely start anew in her chosen profession. She will not, however, ever go with a crowd of alleged showmen who are anxious for experience in real theatrical life. She learned a lesson and avowed that she will profit by it. Such actors, she avers, are a dangerous set of people to get entangled with, and after this she will either star on her own reputation or not at all.

TOWBOATS COLLIDED WITH SERIOUS RESULT

Three Boats Were Sunk And 60,000 Bushels of Coal Lost in the Smashup.

An exciting experience was witnessed last night about 8 o'clock when two tow boats collided opposite Walker's landing. The Ed. Roberts was tied up at the landing and the Joe Walton was trying to come up to the landing when the accident happened. The Joe Walton in some manner got from under control of those in charge and swung around directly at the Ed. Roberts. The latter was unable to get away and the result was that two coal boats and one fuel flat went down in the river. The three boats which sank had about 60,000 bushels of coal on board.

Each tow boat was loaded with twelve coal boats and a number of fuel flats. Two skiffs were lost and several of the crews had narrow escapes from drowning. At the time of the accident it was very dark and it was almost impossible for the crews to see just what was taking place. The loss will reach many thousands dollars.

A STORE INVADED BY SHOPLIFTERS

Organized Gang Sought to Loot
a Prominent Business Place.

THEIR EFFORTS WERE VAIN

Owing to the Vigilance of Owners And Employees—Though Caught in the Act They Were Suffered to Go Free With a Warning.

While the Bee Hive store on Sixth street was crowded until standing room was at a premium early Saturday evening an organized quintet of shoplifters forced their way through the throngs and made bold attempts at carrying off goods amounting to several hundred dollars. The proprietors and clerks were experiencing the busiest time in months and the daring thieves were foiled in their game only by mere chance.

The band was composed of four women and a man. Their mode of action was undoubtedly pre-arranged. Instead of filing into the store together they straggled in one at a time, two going to the rear, where the cloak department is located, one stopping in the center at the remnant counter and two devoting their attention to the glove counter, near the front entrance.

The first couple, the man and the woman, chose the rear. They spent considerable time in examining a number of expensive furs. Neither was noticed particularly and when the woman started out more than likely she would have made good her escape but for Fred Koch, a member of the firm, who detected the end of a fur hanging underneath a long cape worn by her. He immediately started toward her, and it was a merry chase that she gave him around the counter a number of times. It is supposed that she did this to confuse Mr. Koch, but he proved to be not of that kind.

After he had followed her for a few minutes she finally stopped, having in the meantime attempted to get rid of the furs. Seeing that she was caught she as a last resort pulled the furs from her shoulders, pushed the article at her male companion and said:

"Here, I want this cape; buy it for me."

Mr. Koch knew that she had been trying to steal it, and not waiting for the supposed husband to reply took the cape and replaced it on the counter. He then gave the bold pair orders to vacate. They readily complied and were followed to the door by another member of the firm. While returning this member noticed the woman at the remnant counter awkwardly trying to conceal a large amount of the pieces under her cloak. He accused her of shoplifting. Like the others she did not protest and seemed very grateful to the proprietor for allowing her to go in peace.

Hardly had she left until the two who had stopped at the glove counter were detected in slipping articles under their capes. Mercy was again displayed and they were allowed to depart.

The lady clerks and others in the store stood aghast at the nerve and effrontery displayed by the five people. Their work was well planned and was carried on in a manner unprecedented in this city. The people are well known and could be turned over to the police at any time, but the proprietors have decided to allow them their liberty, considering that their game was nipped in the bud and no one is the loser.

TRUSTEE FOR $300 000 ASKS TO BE RELIEVED

Lisbon, February 2.—(Special)—The Euclid Avenue Trust and Savings company, a Cleveland corporation, has filed a petition in regard to the Columbiana County Telephone company, asking the court to accept its resignation as trustee of a mortgage for $300,000 against the telephone company.

The plaintiff company says it has been conducting a banking and trust business in Cleveland and that in June 29, 1900, the Columbiana County Telephone company gave a mortgage or deed of trust, conveying to the plaintiff, as trustees, all its rights, Desperadoes and highwaymen in flight with desperation and only succeeded in ejecting the men after the latter had received many hard blows. After the men were off the car it resumed the trip and no further trouble was encountered until the return trip was being made. The car had reached the Riverview cemetery when a fusillade of rocks, clubs and other missiles rained again and about the car. No destruction was wrought by the fierce onslaught except that a glass in the vestibule was broken.

A few hours later at the corner of Bradshaw avenue Charles L. McCoy, a linotype operator in the employ of the News Review, was attacked by a hold gang of men, and it is thought that they were the same who caused the trouble on the car.

McCoy was returning to his home from Pittsburg and was walking up Bradshaw avenue unsuspecting interruption. He was taken much by surprise when two men rushed in front of him and demanded that he throw up his hands. He did not comply with the demand soon enough for the daring robbers and one of them struck him a heavy blow on the head, following it with another. The assaulted man was soon overpowered and compelled to stand and watch them search his pockets. They succeeded in robbing him of $12 and then ran with all speed up the hill.

property and franchises to secure the payment of the Telephone company's first mortgage bonds, aggregating $300,000. This mortgage was recorded in Mahoning, Columbiana and Jefferson counties in Ohio, and Hancock county, in West Virginia, and as a chattel mortgage in Perry township, Columbiana county.

Although executed January 29, 1900, the mortgage was dated March 1, 1900. On January 16, 1902, the plaintiff company made an assignment to Frank H. Ginn in the court of insolvency, of Cuyahoga county, but the telephone company's entire issue of bonds had been executed prior to that time.

By reason of its assignment, the plaintiff company alleges it has been unable to perform the duties of trustee, and therefore resigns its trust as custodian of such mortgage. Blandin, Rice & Ginn, of Cleveland, are the plaintiff's attorneys.

He Will, However, Remain in the Con-

Prosecutorship.

M. J. McGarry today announces his retirement from the candidacy for the city solicitorship in the following statement:

In view of the fact that I have for the past few years been an avowed candidate for prosecuting attorney of Columbiana county, Ohio, and that my many friends, both in East Liverpool and Columbiana county, insist that I give them the opportunity to nominate me, I feel that I should heed their wishes, and as the county campaign will take my undivided attention, I have concluded to withdraw from the contest for city solicitor and remain in the contest for prosecuting attorney.

The progress which I have made in my chosen profession is due almost entirely to the staunch support of my many friends and I feel that my future is entirely safe in their hands and that the best way to show my appreciation for what they have done for me in the past is to listen to their advice and to submit to their commands at the present.

While returning this member noticed the woman at the remnant counter awkwardly trying to conceal a large amount of the pieces under her cloak. He accused her of shoplifting. Like the others she did not protest and seemed very grateful to the proprietor for allowing her to go in peace.

Harold had she left until the two who had stopped at the glove counter were detected in slipping articles under their capes. Mercy was again displayed and they were allowed to depart.

The lady clerks and others in the store stood aghast at the nerve and effrontery displayed by the five people. Their work was well planned and was carried on in a manner unprecedented in this city. The people are well known and could be turned over to the police at any time, but the proprietors have decided to allow them their liberty, considering that their game was nipped in the bud and no one is the loser.

TRUSTEE FOR $300 000 ASKS TO BE RELIEVED

Trust Company Wants to Resign Its Trusteeship For Columbiana
Telephone Company.

Lisbon, February 2. — (Special) — The Euclid Avenue Trust and Savings company, a Cleveland corporation, has filed a petition in regard to the Columbiana County Telephone company, asking the court to accept its resignation as trustee of a mortgage for $300,000 against the telephone company.

The plaintiff company says it has been conducting a banking and trust business in Cleveland and that in June 29, 1900, the Columbiana County Telephone company gave a mortgage or deed of trust, conveying to the plaintiff, as trustees, all its rights, Desperadoes and highwaymen in fight with desperation and only succeeded in ejecting the men after the latter had received many hard blows. After the men were off the car it resumed the trip and no further trouble was encountered until the return trip was being made. The car had reached the Riverview cemetery when a fusillade of rocks, clubs and other missiles rained against and about the car. No destruction was wrought by the fierce onslaught except that a glass in the vestibule was broken.

A few hours later at the corner of Bradshaw avenue Charles L. McCoy, a linotype operator in the employ of the News Review, was attacked by a bold gang of men, and it is thought that they were the same who caused the trouble on the car.

McCoy was returning to his home from Pittsburg and was walking up Bradshaw avenue unsuspecting interruption. He was taken much by surprise when two men rushed in front of him and demanded that he throw up his hands. He did not comply with the demand soon enough for the daring robbers and one of them struck him a heavy blow on the head, following it with another. The assaulted man was soon overpowered and compelled to stand and watch them search his pockets. They succeeded in robbing him of $12 and then ran with all speed up the hill.

Remonstrating with them to no avail he attempted to remove them from the car. At this juncture he was met with strong opposition. The men became furious and flew at the conductor like enraged animals. He did his best in defense, but was not their equal and had the motorman not mixed in the fray with his controller handle would doubtless have received a terrible beating. For several minutes the conductor and motorman were compelled to property and franchises to secure the payment of the Telephone company's first mortgage bonds, aggregating $300,000. This mortgage was recorded in Mahoning, Columbiana and Jefferson counties in Ohio, and Hancock county, in West Virginia, and as a chattel mortgage in Perry township, Columbiana county.

Although executed January 29, 1900, the mortgage was dated March 1, 1900. On January 16, 1902 the plaintiff company made an assignment to Frank H. Ginn in the court of insolvency, of Cuyahoga county, but the telephone company's entire issue of bonds had been executed prior to that time.

By reason of its assignment, the plaintiff company alleges it has been unable to perform the duties of trustee, and therefore resigns its trust as custodian of such mortgage. Blandin, Rice & Ginn, of Cleveland, are the plaintiff's attorneys.

M'GARRY DECIDES TO QUIT THE RACE

CITY SOLICITOR NOT A CANDI-DATE FOR RE-ELECTION.

He Will, However, Remain in the Contest for the County
Prosecutorship.

M. J. McGarry today announces his retirement from the candidacy for the city solicitorship in the following statement:

In view of the fact that I have for the past few years been an avowed candidate for prosecuting attorney of Columbiana county, Ohio, and that my many friends, both in East Liverpool and Columbiana county, insist that I give them the opportunity to nominate me, I feel that I should heed their wishes, and as the county campaign will take my undivided attention, I have concluded to withdraw from the contest for city solicitor and remain in the contest for prosecuting attorney.

The progress which I have made in my chosen profession is due almost entirely to the staunch support of my many friends and I feel that my future is entirely safe in their hands and that the best way to show my appreciation for what they have done for me in the past is to listen to their advice and to submit to their commands at the present.

20TH YEAR. NO. 27.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1903.

TWO CENTS.

MAN LYING UNCONSCIOUS WITH VERY LITTLE HOPE THAT HE WILL RECOVER

David Laing Fell While Chasing a Companion to Chastise Him and Was Dangerously Hurt.

David Laing is lying in a room at the boarding house of Mrs. M. L. Marquis, in Church alley, between Washington and Market streets, in an unconscious condition, with the chances, the physicians say, 10 to 7 against his recovery.

Laing is a single man, 43 years of age, and has been boarding at Mrs. Marquis' for a month. He is employed in the slip house at the Goodwin pottery, but formerly worked in Chester. It is stated that he is a native of Meadville, Pa.

Saturday night Laing and a number of other men who board at the house were drinking heavily. Laing was in a quarrelsome mood and tried to engage in a fight with George Flynn, a teamster in the employ of the Pilgrim Coal company. Trouble was averted for the time, but yesterday morning when Flynn entered the upstairs room occupied by Laing, the latter renewed the quarrel and Mrs. Marquis requested Flynn to leave the place for the time. Laing was very drunk.

Flynn did as requested and had reached the alley when he heard a crash, and turning, saw Laing sprawling at the foot of the stairway, with blood pouring from his nose and ears.

Mrs. Marquis, who was standing at the landing at the top of the stairway, states that Laing had started in pursuit of Flynn and that just as he reached the head of the stairs tripped and fell headlong. The front door was partly open and it is thought that Laing's head struck it. Other boarders tell the same story.

Flynn was sent to summon a physician, while several of the men carried Laing to his room. Dr. W. W. Hamilton, who responded, found the injured man in an unconscious condition. There had been a hemorrhage in which a quart of blood had been lost through the nose and ears and a contusion was found over the petrous portion of the temporal bone. From these symptoms the physician's diagnosis was that the petrous portion of the temporal bone had been fractured. Owing to the intoxicated condition of the injured man but little could be done for him at the time.

The township trustees were notified of the affair and as Laing is without the means of support they took the case in charge and called in O. D. Shay, the township physician. Dr. Shay's examination verified the diagnosis as given above, and he stated this morning that there is very little hope of Laing's recovery.

Laing had not regained consciousness at a late hour this afternoon.

STRIKE OF MINERS AT MARQUET WORKS

NEARLY 100 COAL DIGGERS QUIT VERY SUDDENLY.

Men Say They Don't Got Union Wages. Company Disputes This.

The Marquet Coal company, of New Cumberland, has a strike on its hands. Saturday afternoon 93 miners employed by the company, as well as all the drivers and day men connected with the mine, walked out. There has been trouble between the men and the company for about two years. However, the demands of the miners have always been put off and no settlement effected. The claim of the men is that they are not receiving the union scale of wages. They have been demanding it for so long without receiving any satisfaction that they decided they would work no longer till the difficulty was adjusted. Accordingly all quit work.

The officials of the company claim they are paying the union scale for the kind of coal they are mining and refuse to listen to the complaints of the strikers. As soon as the strike was declared agents were sent out to the various cities and towns around in search of miners. One came to this city and secured seven men who went there today to begin work. He expects to secure more men at Salineville. Later he will go to Cleveland, and there hopes to find all the men necessary.

The threat has been made that the striking miners will refuse to permit the new men to take up the work. It is not thought, however, that serious trouble will result. For a long time the tin mill at Chester was supplied with coal from these mines and at first it was thought that it would be compelled to close down if the strike was not settled at once. Investigation showed that the mill is not depending on its coal supply from this mine, and the work there will not be interrupted.

FINED FOR DISTURBING A RELIGIOUS MEETING

O. L. Mahon Taken Into Custody at Salvation Army Barracks And Fined.

While acting in a disorderly manner at the Salvation Army barracks on Fourth street last evening, O. L. Mahon was arrested by Officer Salsbury and taken to central police station, where he placed sufficient money to secure his appearance before the mayor today.

At the hearing he pleaded guilty to the charge of disorderly conduct and was fined $2 and costs. It was through the leniency of Adjutant A. E. Snider, of the barracks, that he escaped with so light a fine. Mr. Snider pleaded for the young man, stating that he did not want him fined for disturbing a religious meeting, thinking the other serious enough.

BIG FIRE AT BRILLIANT

Several Buildings Burned And Little Saved—Loss Will Reach $15,000.

Staubenville, February 2.—Fire at Brilliant that broke out in the building occupied by William Myers' saloon destroyed two frame buildings occupied by Myers & Kress and Ralston's saloons, a double brick building occupied by Mrs. Catherine Boyles as a residence and Miss Hattie Spaulding's millinery store.

Very little was saved out of any of the business portion and several buildings, including the postoffice, were only saved after hard work by bucket lines. The loss will reach $15,000.

A SORRY CROWD BEFORE THE MAYOR

NOT MUCH PROFIT IN THE BUNCH LINED UP TODAY.

Two Men Arrested For Disturbing a Dance—Others Charged With Drunkenness.

"What is the lineup this morning?" asked a reporter of Mayor Davidson as he entered the executive's sanctum. "Oh! there are plenty of ships here on my desk and several offenders behind the bars, but they are not the kind that help my purse to bulge or make a smile flit across my countenance," replied he. "I tell you they are dead heads, the majority of them, and I don't like to have such visitors."

Officer Dawson played a lone hand and figured in the first arrests of Saturday evening. He was patrolling his beat in the Diamond at about 11 o'clock when sounds issuing from the Seanoor block, in which there was being held a dance, attracted his attention. Rushing up to the dancing parlors he gained admittance and caught two young men, John Haymaker and A. C. Stewart, who are said to be doing all in their power to produce a genuine rough house. The fellows were immediately placed under arrest and were given a ride to central station. They furnished security and will answer for their alleged misdemeanor this evening.

Teddie Lodge drank Saturday until it was simply an impossibility for him to navigate or keep his eyelids apart. He did not want to sleep among the horses or cattle in any man's barn and was on the hunt for a first class hotel when, becoming blinded, he accidentally fell into among the very class that he abhors. He was picked up by Officer Woods while sleeping soundly in a haymow of a stable. The mayor gave him a chance to get out and secure work.

Harley Reed was carrying a heavy load when run across by Officer Dunn. He was locked up and a charge of drunkenness filed against him. Harry Martin, of Wellsville, had the same drunk and he was taken in tow by Officer Fisher. Another of a similar class was Jim Smith who fell into the clutches of Officer McDermott.

STRANDED THESPIANS DROP THEIR LAWSUIT

HUNTING FOR HAWKINS COM- PANY LEAVES THE CITY.

Miss Mabel Martin Jubilant Over the Course of Events—Has Learn- ed a Lesson.

The stranded, disbanded "Hunting for Hawkins" show troupe has left the city. A part of them, the plaintiffs in the attachment proceedings tried in Squire McCarron's court, departed on the morning train. Miss Mabel Martin, Mr. Raphael and the rest took leave in the evening. They all returned to their homes in New York city.

By their sudden departure the trial, which would have consumed all of today and a part of tomorrow, was called off. It is supposed that the plaintiffs concluded that the evidence in favor of Miss Martin was stronger than they were able to produce and concluded to get out before a hotel bill of enormous proportions piled up against them.

During all of yesterday there was not a more jubilant person in the city than the pool room queen. She felt that she had been exonerated from all suspicion of roguery by the dropping of the case by the plaintiffs and it was with a light heart that she commenced her journey for home and friends where she will likely start anew in her chosen profession. She will not, however, ever go with a crowd of alleged showmen who are anxious for experience in real theatrical life. She learned a lesson and avowed that she will profit by it. Such actors, she avers, are a dangerous set of people to get entangled with, and after this she will either star on her own reputation or not at all.

TOWBOATS COLLIDED WITH SERIOUS RESULT

Three Boats Were Sunk And 60,000 Bushels of Coal Lost in the Smashup.

An exciting experience was witnessed last night about 8 o'clock when two tow boats collided opposite Walker's landing. The Ed. Roberts was tied up at the landing and the Joe Walton was trying to come up to the landing when the accident happened. The Joe Walton in some manner got from under control of those in charge and swung around directly at the Ed. Roberts. The latter was unable to get away and the result was that two coal boats and one fuel flat went down in the river. The three boats which sank had about 60,000 bushels of coal on board.

Each tow boat was loaded with twelve coal boats and a number of fuel flats. Two skiffs were lost and several of the crews had narrow escapes from drowning. At the time of the accident it was very dark and it was almost impossible for the crews to see just what was taking place. The loss will reach many thousands dollars.

A STORE INVADED BY SHOPLIFTERS

Organized Gang Sought to Loot a Prominent Business Place.

THEIR EFFORTS WERE VAIN

Owing to the Vigilance of Owners And Employees—Though Caught in the Act They Were Suffered to Go Free With a Warning.

While the Bee Hive store on Sixth street was crowded until standing room was at a premium early Saturday evening an organized quintet of shoplifters forced their way through the throngs and made bold attempts at carrying off goods amounting to several hundred dollars. The proprietors and clerks were experiencing the busiest time in months and the daring thieves were foiled in their game only by mere chance.

The band was composed of four women and a man. Their mode of action was undoubtedly prearranged. Instead of filing into the store together they straggled in one at a time, two going to the rear, where the cloak department is located, one stopping in the center at the remnant counter and two devoting their attention to the glove counter, near the front entrance.

The first couple, the man and the woman, chose the rear. They spent considerable time in examining a number of expensive furs. Neither was noticed particularly and when the woman started out more than likely she would have made good her escape but for Fred Koch, a member of the firm, who detected the end of a fur hanging underneath a long cape worn by her. He immediately started toward her and it was a merry chase that she gave him around the counter a number of times. It is supposed that she did this to confuse Mr. Koch, but he proved to be not of that kind.

After he had followed her for a few minutes she finally stopped, having in the meantime attempted to get rid of the furs. Seeing that she was caught she as a last resort pulled the furs from her shoulders, pushed the article at her male companion and said:

"Here, I want this cape; buy it for me."

Mr. Koch knew that she had been trying to steal it, and not waiting for the supposed husband to reply took the cape and replaced it on the counter. He then gave the bold pair orders to vacate. They readily complied and were followed to the door by another member of the firm. While returning this member noticed the woman at the remnant counter awkwardly trying to conceal a large amount of the pieces under her cloak. He accused her of shoplifting. Like the others she did not protest and seemed very grateful to the proprietor for allowing her to go in peace.

Harpy had she left until the two who had stopped at the glove counter were detected in slipping articles under their capes. Mercy was again displayed and they were allowed to depart.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

POTTERY IN ENGLAND.

In a recent lecture before the Municipal Association of Thomas' Ward Mr. W. H. Saunders presented the following interesting pottery history:

"The term pottery is supposed to be derived from the word 'Potterion,' the drinking cup of the Greeks, and the art of pottery making in China is said to date back as far as 2599 B. C. Porcelain is supposed to be derived from 'Porcelana,' an obscure Portuguese word, while that known as 'hard porcelain' is said to have been invented in China about 185 B. C. During the Middle Ages Staffordshire was found to be rich in the varied clays suitable to the potter's art and the making of tiles and pipkins, and the early makers of the county were called pot-makers. Delft ware was imported at an early date, while the first precise information relative to porcelain was obtained by that enterprising old traveler Marco Polo, this ware being brought back by him after his travels in China. After some interesting information concerning the early English ware, the lecturer told of Josiah Wedgwood, who did so much to advance the art in that country, and some of whose productions so pleased Queen Charlotte that they were called Queen's ware. Up to this time the elegant productions of the continent were for the rich alone, but Wedgwood changed all this, and the reasonable price of his articles caused them to be so much sought after from abroad that it was said that a traveler could journey from Calais to St. Petersburg and at every town dine off Wedgwood. Wedgwood's success was the result of experiments and trials conducted with preserving industry on scientific principles, and it might be said of him that he called into existence the spirit of Greek art. His productions were made of English clay, by English workmen, without state aid or subsidy, without foreign inspiration, and, as his epitaph records, he converted a rude and inconsiderable manufacture into an elegant art and important part of national commerce. Mr. Saunders having told how a gentleman named Mr. Felix Joseph interested himself in the Portsmouth museum, then destitute of samples of ware, went on to deal with punchbowls, and told how the largest amount of punch was said to have been brewed by Admiral Russell, then in command of the Mediterranean fleet at Alicante. This gigantic brewing consisted of four hogsheds of brandy, one pipe of Malaga, twenty gallons of lime juice, thirteen hundredweight of sugar, five pounds of nutmegs, three hundred toasted biscuits, and eight hogsheds of water. It was served in a great marble fountain, while in a small boat built for that purpose a ship's boy rode about to assist in filling the cups for three thousand people. In the 'good old days' punchbowls were used as baptismal fountains."

POTTERY IN COLORADO.
What will be a unique industry is to be started in Canon City, Col., and will consist of the manufacture of flower pots and other small articles of pottery. At the present time there is not a factory of this kind between the Mississippi river and Utah. In the vicinity of the pottery many rich clay beds have been tested, which show the earth contains the proper ingredients for the making of first-class pottery.

NEW FRENCH METHOD.
High temperature firing in opposition to the ordinary falience and porcelain firing is now being greatly exploited by the Sevres China company, of France. M. Taxile Doat, the well known potter, who has been connected with the plant for the past 25 years, states in the well-known art magazine that he is of the opinion that it has been by this method of high temperature firing that the Chinese have produced the captivating gems in art which they have turned out. All the western fabrications have so far been more or less a step forward toward this goal. With the enterprise and risk-taking of the American character, in a few years beautiful and true ceramics will be produced in this country and those who still remain outside of the irresistible movement toward high temperature decorations, will be left hopelessly behind.

NOTES OF THE POTTERIES.

Alex Phillips, of the Thompson glost, was off sick the latter part of last week.

George Hamilton, of the glost end at the Thompson, and his father have purchased the old Croft homestead on Pleasant Heights and will move there; the latter part of the month. The property consists of a house, barn and two acres of ground.

The officers of No. 9 are now bonded in a trust company instead of by individuals as formerly, the change being made at the last meeting. Although it has not been definitely decided it is pretty well understood that the local will hold a social session some time during this month.

You won't even think of cod liver oil when you are taking Hagee's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil. It contains all the nutritive, re-constructive elements, but none of the disagreeable features—no grease or fishy flavor. A great body and flesh builder.

Mrs. W. H. Lavy, of 1001 Agnes avenue, Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe hoarseness and at times a hard cough, which she says, "Would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeable results. A friend gave me a part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured. From this time on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will be in my house constantly." This remedy is for sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

There are only three prisoners in the county jail at Lisbon.

An interesting farmers' institute was held at Damascus Friday and Saturday.

The First National bank, Rochester, Pa., has increased its capital stock from $50,000 to $150,000.

SPECIAL MEETINGS FULL OF PROMISE

Series at the First Presbyterian Church Started Off Most Auspiciously.

PROF. WEEDEN'S SINGING

Inspiring And Full of Power—The Pastor Speaks Timely Words On the Need of Co-operation And a Union of Effort.

The first of what promises to be a most interesting and profitable series of evangelistic meetings was held at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning. Rev. C. G. Jordan, the pastor, has arranged the services with special care, and they can but result in the accomplishment of good. Prof. W. S. Weedon, the most celebrated soloist in the land, is assisting Rev. Mr. Jordan, which insures the success of this most important department of the work.

Prof. Weedon possesses a voice of extraordinary sweetness, and his ability to move his hearers through the power of song is wonderful. In addition to directing the large choir of 50 voices yesterday, the gentleman sang two beautiful solos, one at the beginning and another at the close of the discourse.

The attendance at the meeting of yesterday morning was very large, and indicated that the members of the congregation are awake to the necessity of doing their part toward making the meetings successful in the name of the Master.

The scripture lesson was read by the pastor and was taken from St. Luke, a portion of the 24th chapter being given. Before beginning his sermon Rev. Mr. Jordan stated he desired to change an announcement which had been made previously. It had been arranged to hold a meeting of the sewing circle on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, but instead he took the liberty to announce that the ladies would meet at that time for prayer and not to stitch. After an hour spent in prayer they could sew if they wished, but this much time he was sure could be spent more profitably in prayer. He hoped the members of the sewing circle would not rebel too strongly, but intimated it would be so carried out whether they rebelled or not.

"Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, beginning at Jerusalem," was the text chosen, being a part of two verses, one in the 25th chapter of St. Luke and the other in St. Matthew.

Rev. Mr. Jordan in his usual powerful, earnest manner moved his hearers as they have perhaps never before.

JUST IN TIME

Down in Health And Strength—Nervous—Irritable—Ache All Over A Depressed Condition Rapidly Changed.

Mr. B. L. Updegraff, of No. 169 Fifth street, East Liverpool, Ohio, says:

"As a general and nerve tonic I can recommend Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' Drug Store. I was at the time feeling run down and nervous—not up to the mark in health and needed a tonic. The medicine did its work nicely and I regained tone, strength and energy again."

been impressed. The starting point set forth in the text at which the gospel was to be preached he took to mean this church, and instead of Jerusalem he would for the time begin his teaching in the sanctuary. If this call had been made by the president of the United States hundreds of young men would respond, and as evidence of the loyalty and patriotism of the people President McKinley's appeal for men to go to Cuba to drive out the Spanish was recalled. The call in this case is made, not by a president, not by a ruler of a single nation, but by the King of Kings. Are we ready to go? Will we stand back and wait for another invitation? The importance of all responding and taking part in the work was pointed out. No excuses should be made either by merchant, mechanic or professional men. No man's worldly affairs should stand in the way of his duties to his Master.

A number of instances were cited illustrating in a vivid manner how Christ and the church were neglected, and how easy it was for careless people to become estranged from God and their duties. The work to be done the coming two weeks is not for the singer and the pastor, but everyone must do his share and contribute his mite. It is not the eloquence of a preacher nor the impressiveness of a song alone that brings souls to Christ. The pastor here related the experience of an acquaintance who had been brought to God through the prayers of a simple farmer while engaged in some of his humble pursuits upon the farm. "If you can't work any other way, you can pray," said the pastor. "And you can go a little further and ask your neighbor and your friend what they are going to do with their souls." God's help must also be secured. Little good can be accomplished, even in Jerusalem, without the aid of God.

God will only be too willing to help if you could only realize how easy it is to enlist His aid. There is work for all. The boys and girls must be taken care of and saved from destruction. Go out and invite them to these meetings. Go out as earnest Christians and bring them in.

"I believe all will contribute their share, and I believe God will abundantly bless these meetings because we have asked Him earnestly and honestly to do so." The sermon was in every sense a preliminary one, calculated to awaken the congregation to a sense of their duties in the coming meetings. Rev. Mr. Jordan endeavored to show how powerless he would be and how fruitless would be the efforts of the singers to move people to better thoughts and a new life, without the co-operation and willing aid of the entire congregation. That he succeeded admirably in his efforts to do this was evidenced in many ways before the morning meeting was brought to a close.

There are many reasons for the belief that the meetings so carefully planned, and begun under such favorable conditions will result in great and lasting good.

Prof. Weedon's last solo was a beautiful one, and was rendered in a manner which appealed to every hearer. His brief talks, given almost invariably at the close of a selection, are characteristic, and his earnestness never fails to impress. Prof. Weedon is a true evangelist. He not only sings perfectly but has a fascinating style of delivery when talking which causes one to wonder whether it would not have been better for the cause of Christianity had he chosen the pulpit instead of the choir.

The meetings will continue during the next two weeks, services being conducted each evening. The pastor will be ably assisted, beginning to night, and there is every indication that the series will be well attended and interesting.

Doctors are not infallible and there are many instances where they have decided a case was hopeless and then the patient astonished everyone by getting well and the sole cause of their cure was Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. A case in point is that of James Lettice of Canajoharie, N. Y., who writes:

"Some years ago I was attacked with pains in my back and side that were fearful in the extreme. I could not control my kidneys at all and what came from them was mucous and blood. I was in a terrible state and suffered intensely. A prominent physician of Albany, N. Y., decided that an operation was all that would save me. I dreaded that and commenced to take Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. I felt better almost instantly. When I had taken about two bottles, the flow from the bladder was much cleaner, the pain stopped, and I was saved from the surgeon's knife and am now well."

Dr. W. H. Morse, the famous physician of Westfield, N. J., has this to say of this great medicine:

"I have known it to cure chronic inflammation of the kidneys, where the attending physician pronounced the case incurable, and No form of kidney, liver, bladder or blood disease, or the distressing sicknesses so common to women, can long withstand the great curative power of this famous specific. of futile effort to successfully establish this king of all game birds as an inhabitant of Ohio forests and thickets.

The reason for failure given is three fold: First, the law protecting the birds was not enforced, and unscrupulous hunters killed them off before they could get a start. Second, the method of selecting the best birds and sending them out from the hatchery, leaving only the scrubs for propagating purposes, caused the flock to deteriorate. Third, the system of inbreeding practiced ever since the attempt to raise pheasants, was ruinous, resulting in a great many of the eggs produced being sterile.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

POTTERY IN ENGLAND.

In a recent lecture before the Municipal Association of Thomas' Ward Mr. W. H. Saunders presented the following interesting pottery history:

"The term pottery is supposed to be derived from the word 'Potterion,' the drinking cup of the Greeks, and the art of pottery making in China is said to date back as far as 2599 B. C. Porcelain is supposed to be derived from 'Porcelana,' an obscure Portuguese word, while that known as 'hard porcelain' is said to have been invented in China about 185 B. C. During the Middle Ages Staffordshire was found to be rich in the varied clays suitable to the potter's art and the making of tiles and pipkins, and the early makers of the county were called pot-makers. Delft ware was imported at an early date, while the first precise information relative to porcelain was obtained by that enterprising old traveler Marco Polo, this ware being brought back by him after his travels in China. After some interesting information concerning the early English ware, the lecturer told of Josiah Wedgwood, who did so much to advance the art in that country, and some of whose productions so pleased Queen Charlotte that they were called Queen's ware. Up to this time the elegant productions of the continent were for the rich alone, but Wedgwood changed all this, and the reasonable price of his articles caused them to be so much sought after from abroad that it was said that a traveler could journey from Calais to St. Petersburg and at every town dine off Wedgwood. Wedgwood's success was the result of experiments and trials conducted with preserving industry on scientific principles, and it might be said of him that he called into existence the spirit of Greek art. His productions were made of English clay, by English workmen, without state aid or subsidy, without foreign inspiration, and, as his epitaph records, he converted a rude and inconsiderable manufacture into an elegant art and important part of national commerce. Mr. Saunders having told how a gentleman named Mr. Felix Joseph interested himself in the Portsmouth museum, then destitute of samples of ware, went on to deal with punchbowls, and told how the largest amount of punch was said to have been brewed by Admiral Russell, then in command of the Mediterranean fleet at Alicante. This gigantic brewing consisted of four hogheads of brandy, one pipe of Malaga, twenty gallons of lime juice, thirteen hundredweight of sugar, five pounds of nutmegs, three hundred toasted biscuits, and eight hogheads of water. It was served in a great marble fountain, while in a small boat built for that purpose a ship's boy rode about to assist in filling the cups for three thousand people. In the 'good old days' punchbowls were used as baptismal fountains."

POTTERY IN COLORADO.

What will be a unique industry is to be started in Canon City, Col., and will consist of the manufacture of flower pots and other small articles of pottery. At the present time there is not a factory of this kind between the Mississippi river and Utah. In the vicinity of the pottery many rich clay beds have been tested, which show the earth contains the proper ingredients for the making of first-class pottery.

NEW FRENCH METHOD.

High temperature firing in opposition to the ordinary faience and porcelain firing is now being greatly exploited by the Sevres China company, of France. M. Taxile Doat, the well known potter, who has been connected with the plant for the past 25 years, states in a well-known art magazine that he is of the opinion that it has been by this method of high temperature firing that the Chinese have produced the captivating gems in art which they have turned out. All the western fabrications have so far been more or less a step forward toward this goal. With the enterprise and risk-all of the American character, in a few years beautiful and true ceramics will be produced in this country and those who still remain outside of the irresistible movement toward high temperature decorations, will be left hopelessly behind.

NOTES OF THE POTTERIES.

Alex Phillips, of the Thompson glost, was off sick the latter part of last week.

George Hamilton, of the glost end at the Thompson, and his father have purchased the old Croft homestead on Pleasant Heights and will move there the latter part of the month. The property consists of a house, barn and two acres of ground.

The officers of No. 9 are now bonded in a trust company instead of by individuals as formerly, the change being made at the last meeting. Although it has not been definitely decided it is pretty well understood that the local will hold a social session some time during this month.

You won't even think of cod liver oil when you are taking Hagee's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil. It contains all the nutritive, re-constructive elements, but none of the disagreeable features—no grease or fishy flavor. A great body and flesh builder.

There was no school Tuesday and Wednesday, owing to the teacher being sick.

Miss Florence Cope is at Salem where she will spend two weeks with relatives.

A case in point is that of James Lettice of Canajoharie, N. Y., who writes:

"Some years ago I was attacked with pains in my back and side that were fearful in the extreme. I could not control my kidneys at all and what came from them was mucous and bloody. I was in a terrible state and suffered intensely. A prominent physician of Albany, N. Y., decided that an operation was all that would save me. I dreaded that and commenced to take Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. I felt better almost instantly. When I had taken about two bottles, the flow from the bladder was much cleaner, the pain stopped, and I was saved from the surgeon's knife and am now well."

Dr. W. H. Morse, the famous physician of Westfield, N. J., has this to say of this great medicine:

"I have known it to cure chronic inflammation of the kidneys, where the attending physician pronounced the case incurable. No form of kidney, liver, bladder or blood disease, or the distressing sicknesses so common to women, can long withstand the great curative power of this famous specific. Its record of cures has made it famous in medical circles everywhere."

of futile effort to successfully establish this king of all game birds as an inhabitant of Ohio forests and thickets.

The reason for failure given is three fold: First, the law protecting the birds was not enforced, and unscrupulous hunters killed them off before they could get a start. Second, the method of selecting the best birds and sending them out from the hatchery, leaving only the scrubs for propagating purposes, caused the flock to deteriorate. Third, the system of inbreeding practiced ever since the attempt to raise pheasants, was ruinous, resulting in a great many of the eggs produced being sterile.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

POTTERY IN ENGLAND.

In a recent lecture before the Municipal Association of the 'Thomas' Ward Mr. W. H. Saunders presented the following interesting pottery history:

"The term pottery is supposed to be derived from the word 'Potterion,' the drinking cup of the Greeks, and the art of pottery making in China is said to date back as far as 2599 B. C. Porcelain is supposed to be derived from 'Porcelana,' an obscure Portuguese word, while that known as 'hard porcelain' is said to have been invented in China about 185 B. C. During the Middle Ages Staffordshire was found to be rich in the varied clays suitable to the potter's art and the making of tiles and pipkins, and the early makers of the county were called pot-makers. Delft ware was imported at an early date, while the first precise information relative to porcelain was obtained by that enterprising old traveler Marco Polo, this ware being brought back by him after his travels in China. After some interesting information concerning the early English ware, the lecturer told of Josiah Wedgwood, who did so much to advance the art in that country, and some of whose productions so pleased Queen Charlotte that they were called Queen's ware. Up to this time the elegant productions of the continent were for the rich alone, but Wedgwood changed all this, and the reasonable price of his articles caused them to be so much sought after from abroad that it was said that a traveler could journey from Calais to St. Petersburg and at every town dine off Wedgwood. Wedgwood's success was the result of experiments and trials conducted with preserving industry on scientific principles, and it might be said of him that he called into existence the spirit of Greek art. His productions were made of English clay, by English workmen, without state aid or subsidy, without foreign inspiration, and, as his epitaph records, he converted a rude and inconsiderable manufacture into an elegant art and important part of the national commerce. Mr. Saunders having told how a gentleman named Mr. Felix Joseph interested himself in the Portsmouth museum, then destitute of samples of ware, went on to deal with punchbowls, and told how the largest amount of punch was said to have been brewed by Admiral Russell, then in command of the Mediterranean fleet at Alicante. This gigantic brewing consisted of four hogheads of brandy, one pipe of Malaga, twenty gallons of lime juice, thirteen hundred-weight of sugar, five pounds of nutmegs, three hundred toasted biscuits, and eight hogheads of water. It was served in a great marble fountain, while in a small boat built for that purpose a ship's boy rode about to assist in filling the cups for three thousand people. In the 'good old days' punch-bowls were used as baptismal founts."

POTTERY IN COLORADO.
What will be a unique industry is to be started in Canon City, Col., and will consist of the manufacture of flower pots and other small articles of pottery. At the present time there is not a factory of this kind between the Mississippi river and Utah. In the vicinity of the pottery many rich clay beds have been tested, which show the earth contains the proper ingredients for the making of first-class pottery.

NEW FRENCH METHOD.

High temperature firing in opposition to the ordinary faience and porcelain firing is now being greatly exploited by the Sevres China company, of France. M. Taxile Doat, the well known potter, who has been connected with the plant for the past 25 years, states in a well-known art magazine that he is of the opinion that it has been by this method of high temperature firing that the Chinese have produced the captivating gems in art which they have turned out. All the western fabrications have so far been more or less a step forward toward this goal. With the enterprise and risk-all of the American character, in a few years beautiful and true ceramics will be produced in this country and those who still remain outside of the irresistible movement toward high temperature decorations, will be left hopelessly behind.

Alex Phillips, of the Thompson glost, was off sick the latter part of last week. George Hamilton, of the glost end at the Thompson, and his father have purchased the old Croft homestead on Pleasant Heights and will move there the latter part of the month. The property consists of a house, barn and two acres of ground.

The officers of No. 9 are now bonded in a trust company instead of by individuals as formerly, the change being made at the last meeting. Although it has not been definitely decided it is pretty well understood that the local will hold a social session some time during this month.

SPECIAL MEETINGS FULL OF PROMISE

Series at the First Presbyterian Church Started Off Most Auspiciously.

PROF. WEEDEN'S SINGING

Inspiring And Full of Power—The Pastor Speaks Timely Words On the Need of Co-operation And a Union of Effort.

The first of what promises to be a most interesting and profitable series of evangelistic meetings was held at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning. Rev. C. G. Jordan, the pastor, has arranged the services with special care, and they can but result in the accomplishment of good. Prof. W. S. Weedon, the most celebrated soloist in the land, is assisting Rev. Mr. Jordan, which insures the success of this most important department of the work.

Prof. Weedon possesses a voice of extraordinary sweetness, and his ability to move his hearers through the power of song is wonderful. In addition to directing the large choir of 50 voices yesterday, the gentleman sang two beautiful solos, one at the beginning and another at the close of the discourse.

The attendance at the meeting of yesterday morning was very large, and indicated that the members of the congregation are awake to the necessity of doing their part toward making the meetings successful in the name of the Master.

The scripture lesson was read by the pastor and was taken from St. Luke, a portion of the 24th chapter being given. Before beginning his sermon Rev. Mr. Jordan stated he desired to change an announcement which had been made previously. It had been arranged to hold a meeting of the sewing circle on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, but instead he took the liberty to announce that the ladies would meet at that time for prayer and not to stitch. After an hour spent in prayer they could sew if they wished, but this much time he was sure could be spent more profitably in prayer. He hoped the members of the sewing circle would not rebel too strongly, but intimated it would be so carried out whether they rebelled or not.

"Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, beginning at Jerusalem," was the text chosen, being a part of two verses, one in the 25th chapter of St. Luke and the other in St. Matthew.

Rev. Mr. Jordan in his usual powerful, earnest manner moved his hearers as they have perhaps never before.

JUST IN TIME

Down in Health And Strength—Nervous—Irritable—Ache All Over—A Depressed Condition Rapidly Changed.

Mr. B. L. Updegraff, of No. 169 Fifth street, East Liverpool, Ohio, says:

"As a general and nerve tonic I can recommend Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' Drug Store. I was at the time feeling run down and nervous—not up to the mark in health and needed a tonic. The medicine did its work nicely and I regained tone, strength and energy again."

been impressed. The starting point set forth in the text at which the gospel was to be preached he took to mean this church, and instead of Jerusalem he would for the time begin his teaching in the sanctuary. If this call had been made by the president of the United States hundreds of young men would respond, and as evidence of the loyalty and patriotism of the people President McKinley's appeal for men to go to Cuba to drive out the Spanish was recalled. The call in this case is made, not by a president, not by a ruler of a single nation, but by the King of Kings. Are we ready to go? Will we stand back and wait for another invitation? The importance of all responding and taking part in the work was pointed out. No excuses should be made either by merchant, mechanic or professional men. No man's worldly affairs should stand in the way of his duties to his Master.

A number of instances were cited illustrating in a vivid manner how Christ and the church were neglected and how easy it was for careless people to become estranged from God and their duties. The work to be done the coming two weeks is not for the singer and the pastor, but everyone must do his share and contribute his mite. It is not the eloquence of a preacher nor the impressiveness of a song alone that brings souls to Christ. The pastor here related the experience of an acquaintance who had been brought to God through the prayers of a simple farmer while engaged in some of his humble pursuits upon the farm. "If you can't work any other way, you can pray," said the pastor. "And you can go a little further and ask your neighbor and your friend what they are going to do with their souls." God's help must also be secured. Little good can be accomplished, even in Jerusalem, without the aid of God.

God will only be too willing to help if you could only realize how easy it is to enlist His aid. There is work for all. The boys and girls must be taken care of and saved from destruction. Go out and invite them to these meetings. Go out as earnest Christians and bring them in.

"I believe all will contribute their share, and I believe God will abundantly bless these meetings because we have asked Him earnestly and honestly to do so." The sermon was in every sense a preliminary one, calculated to awaken the congregation to a sense of their duties in the coming meetings. Rev. Mr. Jordan endeavored to show how powerless he would be and how fruitless would be the efforts of the singers to move people to better thoughts and a new life, without the co-operation and willing aid of the entire congregation. That he succeeded admirably in his efforts to do this was evidenced in many ways before the morning meeting was brought to a close.

There are many reasons for the belief that the meetings so carefully planned, and begun under such favorable conditions will result in great and lasting good.

Prof. Weedon's last solo was a beautiful one, and was rendered in a manner which appealed to every hearer. His brief talks, given almost invariably at the close of a selection, are characteristic, and his earnestness never fails to impress. Prof. Weedon is a true evangelist. He not only sings perfectly but has a fascinating style of delivery when talking which causes one to wonder whether it would not have been better for the cause of Christianity had he chosen the pulpit instead of the choir.

The meetings will continue during the next two weeks, services being conducted each evening. The pastor will be ably assisted, beginning to-night, and there is every indication that the series will be well attended and interesting.

BASEBALL TRAINING A GREAT ADVANTAGE

Firmer Devotees of the Game Found in High Places, Including the Cabinet.

The baseball field gives a superb training. Its pupils learn things not taught in the school books—judgment, accuracy of eye, strategy, alertness, the overcoming of obstacles and a knowledge of human nature. The graduate well up in these branches of instruction and incidentally developed physically in a way impossible in gymnastics, may lack something of book learning, but he is well equipped for a career. In physique and in the mental traits that make for executive success he lacks little that he need envy the college graduate the possession of, except for a learned profession.

And in business and professional life John Ward, Spalding, Al Reach, the Wrights, Harry and George Barrett, the Chicago sheriff; Ebbs, the Brooklyn councilman; Dr. M. E. Baldwin, a prominent physician, and a host of others.

More are in sight, for "Uncle" Anson has a fine chance to be Chicago's city treasurer.

EAST END

DECISION DAY
FOR ENDEAVORERS

A Notable Feature of Especially Interesting Services at Second Presbyterian Church.

A series of special meetings was begun yesterday at the second Presbyterian church in the East End. Splendid audiences were present at both services. The music at both services was specially prepared for the occasion and was fine. These services will continue for three weeks closing with communion February 22. Rev. H. N. Campbell will preach every evening this week.

Christian Endeavor day was observed in an appropriate manner at 6:30 last evening at the church. It was known as "Decision Day" and a good program had been prepared. After a responsive service interspersed with music eight little girls, members of the Junior society, sang, "Jesus Bids us Shine." T. F. Anderson spoke on the subject, "Christian Endeavor Day." He told of the origin and growth of the society from a humble beginning to its present prosperous condition. There are more than 60,000 societies in the country today and this number is being largely increased every year.

Mrs. W. E. Baird read an excellent paper on "A Time for Decision." She pointed out that youth was the time for a start in the Christian life and showed how statistics proved that very few persons began a religious life after the ages of 8 and 20. This was followed by a scripture reading and a hymn, "The Value of an Early Choice" was the title of another interesting paper read by Mrs. J. W. Grant. Misses Nellie Baird and Bertha Grant gave appropriate recitations which were followed by Miss Lida Farrar reading the poem, "Tomorrow."

The Juniors gave another song and then Rev. Crowe, the pastor, gave a short talk on "Decide Today." He asked all to accept the opportunity of today. This is the accepted time and none of us have any assurance that we may have another opportunity to accept the teachings of Christ. The offering was then taken and two new members were voted into the society. An excellent selection was given by a quartette which was followed by a hymn and benediction.

Plate Glass Window Broken.

A large plate glass window in the department store of Frank Chambers, of Mulberry street, was broken early Sunday morning by some unknown person. It is not known whether the window was broken by accident or with the intention of stealing some valuable watches and jewelry left in the window. Two watches are missing from the window but at yet it is not known whether they were stolen or were sold sometime Saturday night.

War on Posters.

The small boys of the East End today started a war on posters, tearing down all sorts of bills and advertising matter from telephone poles, telegraph poles and wherever they could find them. The notices of the churches and of the candidates suffered equally with other more ordinary forms of advertising. The matter will be reported to the police.

Interesting Revival Meetings.

The meetings at the Erie street M. E. church will continue with renewed interest this week as the district quartet will be present all the week. The meetings yesterday were largely attended and a number of conversions were reported. The quartet begins its work here tonight.

DUTY OF MAN
IN THE WORLD

The Christian's Mission to Persuade Men to Know and Heed the Truth.

PUNISHMENT IS CERTAIN

For Those Who Transgress God's Laws. The Noble Motives That Actuated Paul—An Able Sermon By Rev. Dr. J. C. Taggart.

The inclement weather yesterday had no noticeable effect on the churchgoers. Every edifice in the city open for the worship of God contained about the usual number at each service. Indeed, the day being in the midst of a general revival over the entire city considerably more than ordinary interest was manifested. For several weeks the ministers of the churches have been warning their congregations of the dire necessity and aptitude of a decisive work for the upbuilding and teaching of God's divine laws.

It was this feeling of duty that prompted Rev. J. C. Taggart, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church, to choose the subject upon which he preached most ably on at the morning service. The subject was taken from II. Corinthians v:11th and 14th verses. "Knowing therefore the terror of God, we persuade men." "For the love of Christ constraineth us."

In part Dr. Taggart said: "First of all, every person born into the world has a mission to perform. He has something to accomplish. It being a divine duty, we must know what we are supposed to accomplish. After learning that we have the motive we need the power and ability to carry out the command. What a great difference there would be in the world today if every one were filled with the same motive that filled the heart, soul and mind of Paul when he wrote his never dying epistle to the Corinthians! Paul was imbued with the motive of love and kindness for the entire world. At the present time the opportunities and facilities for doing the good that Paul accomplished and tried to accomplish are many times greater. If there was ever a time that the gospel of love and truth could be preached to the uttermost parts of the earth it is now. The facilities are at hand and execution is all that is necessary. It is the desire and command of God that the world be won for Christ, making the present time one of grave responsibilities for the church."

"There were two motives that compelled Paul to preach and give his entire time for the furtherance of the one great cause, and I hope, in the depths of my heart, that the same two motives may lead us and every one to exemplify the life of Paul by following his example. The two motives were the terror of the Lord and the love for Christ. Knowing the terror of the Lord, how can we do else than fear Him? How terrible is His wrath! There can be nothing more terrifying than the wrath of the lamb of God. We also are aware of the love of God for us. Having an understanding of both it is our duty to persuade men. And it is emphatically not our duty to preach hell and damnation. Such preaching should never be heard only in the tenderest terms. God will execute just judgment on men. He hates sin and will most assuredly punish it. It is the love of Christ that constraineth us; because we thus judge; that is, one died for all, then were all dead."

"It is true that wrath and love are much in contrast. They are, however, not contradictory. One that does not hate evil cannot love holiness. They go together with God. They are perfect in God. While we truly know God, we will not know terror and love. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; it is the principal part of wisdom. Solomon, the wisest of all men, said 'Fear God and keep His commandments.' We cannot appreciate the beauty of holiness unless we know fear, the penalties of sin. We thus see that fear is a motive and likewise love."

"For the framing of our minds fear and love, the products of God, are essential. Fear keeps us back from evil. Love impels us onward. Fear makes us watchful. Love makes us active. Both are from faith in God, the just, righteous and merciful One."

"Labeled," the lecture given by Rev. Dr. Pratt, at the opera house yesterday afternoon, was in keeping with his growing reputation for eloquence and brilliancy. In fact many who were present and who have heard all of the series declare it excelled in many points. The lecturer has the faculty of adapting himself to the platform, even while in the midst of nightly meetings at which he occupies the pulpit. He talks as one young man to another with an eloquence and a logic that is convincing. It is his endeavor to bring to their notice the attractiveness of Christian manhood and win them from a life given over to insidious pleasures. That his efforts are bearing fruit cannot be doubted.

It is the fond dream of the magnate to hide his thoughts, of the rogue to hide his character, of the politician to hide his principles, but he has none to hide. Young men gather in small groups in dark places and on street corners, in rooms barely comfortable, where they think they are enjoying club life; they engage in licentiousness and immoral practices and have the assurance to believe that their sins will never be discovered or they will be called upon to pay the penalty. No man succeeds in covering up himself. He is labeled by his deeds and is as an open book.

A great Boston newspaper, in advertising itself in and around the city, printed the photograph of a certain man. He was to go about the city, visiting public places and to the person who could identify him, was offered a reward of $50. In less than three days has been identified. It is impossible to go through life unlabeled. Some men take a glass of beer occasionally, thinking it a mild recreation but it requires only three or four visits to the saloon before he is labeled and it makes no difference whether he is from a palace or a cabin it requires no daring in prophecy as to his future. He is led into overindulgence and beastly intoxication and the miserable end of his existence is indulgence in dissipation and return to old associations. He may succeed for a time but will think it smart and will return to it again, engaging more and more freely until his downfall. He places a tag on himself and on it can be read drunkenness, immorality, brutality and lust.

The business man sees a label on the young man who drinks, although the wearer may be blind to it. When you take the first glass you write a tag on yourself that all can read and men will turn away from you.

The young man who carries a five cent novel does not realize that he is giving an insight into his entire inner life. The novel in his label, and one not to be envied. On a railroad journey the lecturer sat near a man who had just laid aside a book and when it was handed to him, by his request, he saw that the title was "Evolution of Economics of America," by Carroll D. Wright. "Teacher, are you?" was asked and the affirmative answer proved that the label suggested by the book had been correct.

A young man, who on the crowded street of a city, rushed to the aid of an aged lady who had fallen, needed no further label as to his character. There is a variety of lines by which a man may label himself. No man succeeds in hiding himself but is an open book and across his breast, as a broad stretching sign, his sins or good deeds, success or failures, are written. Can we afford to write the wrong label?

EAST END

DECISION DAY
FOR ENDEAVORERS

A Notable Feature of Especially Interesting Services at Second Presbyterian Church.

A series of special meetings was begun yesterday at the second Presbyterian church in the East End. Splendid audiences were present at both services. The music at both services was specially prepared for the occasion and was fine. These services will continue for three weeks closing with communion February 22. Rev. H. N. Campbell will preach every evening this week.

Christian Endeavor day was observed in an appropriate manner at 6:30 last evening at the church. It was known as "Decision Day" and a good program had been prepared. After a responsive service interspersed with music eight little girls, members of the Junior society, sang, "Jesus Bids us Shine." T. F. Anderson spoke on the subject, "Christian Endeavor Day." He told of the origin and growth of the society from a humble beginning to its present prosperous condition. There are more than 60,000 societies in the country today and this number is being largely increased every year.

Mrs. W. E. Baird read an excellent paper on "A Time for Decision." She pointed out that youth was the time for a start in the Christian life and showed how statistics proved that very few persons began a religious life after the ages of 20 and 30. This was followed by a scripture reading and a hymn. "The Value of an Early Choice" was the title of another interesting paper read by Mrs. J. W. Grant. Misses Nellie Baird and Bertha Grant gave appropriate recitations which were followed by Miss Lida Farrar reading the poem, "Tomorrow."

The Juniors gave another song and then Rev. Crowe, the pastor, gave a short talk on "Decide Today." He asked all to accept the opportunity of today. This is the accepted time and none of us have any assurance that we may have another opportunity to accept the teachings of Christ. The offering was then taken and two new members were voted into the society. An excellent selection was given by a quartette which was followed by a hymn and benediction.

Plate Glass Window Broken.

A large plate glass window in the department store of Frank Chambers, of Mulberry street, was broken early Sunday morning by some unknown person. It is not known whether the window was broken by accident or with the intention of stealing some valuable watches and jewelry left in the window. Two watches are missing from the window but at yet it is not known whether they were stolen or were sold sometime Saturday night.

War on Posters.

The small boys of the East End today started a war on posters, tearing down all sorts of bills and advertising matter, from telephone poles, telegraph poles and wherever they could find them. The notices of the churches and of the candidates suffered equally with other more ordinary forms of advertising. The matter will be reported to the police.

Interesting Revival Meetings.

The meetings at the Erie street M. E. church will continue with renewed interest this week as the district quartet will be present all the week. The meetings yesterday were largely attended and a number of conversions were reported. The quartet begins its work here tonight.

Mr. Weary showed himself the profound student that he is, the subject giving him ample scope for a display of his best powers, both in eloquence and biblical research.

DECISION DAY
FOR ENDEAVORERS

A Notable Feature of Especially Interesting Services at Second Presbyterian Church.

A series of special meetings was begun yesterday at the second Presbyterian church in the East End. Splendid audiences were present at both services. The music at both services was specially prepared for the occasion and was fine. These services will continue for three weeks closing with communion February 22. Rev. H. N. Campbell will preach every evening this week.

Christian Endeavor day was observed in an appropriate manner at 6:30 last evening at the church. It was known as "Decision Day" and a good program had been prepared. After a responsive service interspersed with music eight little girls, members of the Junior society, sang, "Jesus Bids us Shine." T. F. Anderson spoke on the subject, "Christian Endeavor Day." He told of the origin and growth of the society from a humble beginning to its present prosperous condition. There are more than 60,000 societies in the country today and this number is being largely increased every year.

Mrs. W. E. Baird read an excellent paper on "A Time for Decision." She pointed out that youth was the time for a start in the Christian life and showed how statistics proved that very few persons began a religious life after the ages of 8 and 20. This was followed by a scripture reading and a hymn, "The Value of an Early Choice" was the title of another interesting paper read by Mrs. J. W. Grant. Misses Nellie Baird and Bertha Grant gave appropriate recitations which were followed by Miss Lida Farrar reading the poem, "Tomorrow."

The Juniors gave another song and then Rev. Crowe, the pastor, gave a short talk on "Decide Today." He asked all to accept the opportunity of today. This is the accepted time and none of us have any assurance that we may have another opportunity to accept the teachings of Christ. The offering was then taken and two new members were voted into the society. An excellent selection was given by a quartette which was followed by a hymn and benediction.

Plate Glass Window Broken.

A large plate glass window in the department store of Frank Chambers, of Mulberry street, was broken early Sunday morning by some unknown person. It is not known whether the window was broken by accident or with the intention of stealing some valuable watches and jewelry left in the window. Two watches are missing from the window but at yet it is not known whether they were stolen or were sold sometime Saturday night.

War on Posters.

The small boys of the East End today started a war on posters, tearing down all sorts of bills and advertising matter, from telephone poles, telegraph poles and wherever they could find them. The notices of the churches and of the candidates suffered equally with other more ordinary forms of advertising. The matter will be reported to the police.

Interesting Revival Meetings.

The meetings at the Erie street M. E. church will continue with renewed interest this week as the district quartet will be present all the week. The meetings yesterday were largely attended and a number of conversions were reported. The quartet begins its work here tonight.

Good, healthy flesh can only be gained by the use of proper food, together with natural action of the digestive organs. Small Fire in Dixonville.

Fire was discovered yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock in the residence of John Fetty, in Dixonville. The blaze started in the loft and its origin is a mystery. Fetty burns coal and the fire originated quite a distance from the chimney. Fortunately the blaze was discovered before it had gained much headway and it was extinguished without calling the department. The damage will not exceed $25.

They were Miss Emma Taylor and Ernest Chapman, both formerly of New Cumberland. Both couples will reside in the East End.

DUTY OF MAN
IN THE WORLD

The Christian's Mission to Persuade Men to Know and Heed the Truth.

PUNISHMENT IS CERTAIN

For Those Who Transgress God's Laws.
The Noble Motives That Actuated Paul—An Able Sermon By Rev. Dr. J. C. Taggart.

The inclement weather yesterday had no noticeable effect on the churchgoers. Every edifice in the city open for the worship of God contained about the usual number at each service. Indeed, the day being in the midst of a general revival over the entire city considerably more than ordinary interest was manifested. For several weeks the ministers of the churches have been warning their congregations of the dire necessity and aptitude of a decisive work for the upbuilding and teaching of God's divine laws.

It was this feeling of duty that prompted Rev. J. C. Taggart, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church, to choose the subject upon which he preached most ably on at the morning service. The subject was taken from II Corinthians viii and xiv verses, "Knowing therefore the terror of God, we persuade men." "For the love of Christ constraineth us."

In part Dr. Taggart said: "First of all, every person born into the world has a mission to perform. He has something to accomplish. It being a divine duty, we must know what we are supposed to accomplish. After learning that we have the motive we need the power and ability to carry out the command. What a great difference there would be in the world today if every one were filled with the same motive that filled the heart, soul and mind of Paul when he wrote his never dying epistle to the Corinthians! Paul was imbued with the motive of love and kindness for the entire world. At the present time the opportunities and facilities for doing the good that Paul accomplished and tried to accomplish are many times greater. If there was ever a time that the gospel of love and truth could be preached to the uttermost parts of the earth it is now. The facilities are at hand and execution is all that is necessary. It is the desire and command of God that the world be won for Christ, making the present time one of grave responsibilities for the church.

"There were two motives that compelled Paul to preach and give his entire time for the furtherance of the one great cause, and I hope, in the depths of my heart, that the same two motives may lead us and every one to exemplify the life of Paul by following his example. The two motives were the terror of the Lord and the love for Christ. Knowing the terror of the Lord, how can we do else than fear Him? How terrible is His wrath! There can be nothing more terrorizing than the wrath of the lamb of God. We also are aware of the love of God for us. Having an understanding of both it is our duty to persuade men. And it is emphatically not our duty to preach hell and damnation. Such preaching should never be heard only in the tenderest terms. God will execute just judgment on men. He hates sin and will most assuredly punish it. It is the love of Christ that constraineth us; because we thus judge; that is, one died for all, then were all dead.

"It is true that wrath and love are much in contrast. They are, however, not contradictory. One that does not hate evil cannot love holiness. They go together with God. They are perfect in God. While we truly know God, we will not know terror and love. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; it is the principal part of wisdom. Solomon, the wisest of all men, said 'Fear God and keep His commandments.' We cannot appreciate the beauty of holiness unless we know fear, the penalties of sin. We thus see that fear is a motive and likewise love.

"For the framing of our minds fear and love, the products of God, are essential. Fear keeps us back from evil. Love impels us onward. Fear makes us watchful. Love makes us active. Both are from faith in God, the just, righteous and merciful One."

WHY EVERY MAN

BEARS A LABEL

HIS DEEDS AND ACTS PLAINLY PROCLAIM HIS CHARACTER.

No One Can Hide Himself—The Awful Stigma of the Man Who Drinks.

"Labeled," the lecture given by Rev. Dr. Pratt, at the opera house yesterday afternoon, was in keeping with his growing reputation for eloquence and brilliancy. In fact many who were present and who have heard all of the series declare it excelled in many points. The lecturer has the faculty of adapting himself to the platform, even while in the midst of nightly meetings at which he occupies the pulpit. He talks as one young man to another with an eloquence and a logic that is convincing. It is his endeavor to bring to their notice the attractiveness of Christian manhood and win them from a life given over to insidious pleasures. That his efforts are bearing fruit cannot be doubted.

It is the fond dream of the magnate to hide his thoughts, of the rogue to hide his character, of the politician to hide his principles, but he has none to hide. Young men gather in small groups in dark places and on street corners, in rooms barely comfortable, where they think they are enjoying club life; they engage in licentiousness and immoral practices and have the assurance to believe that their sins will never be discovered or they will be called upon to pay the penalty. No man succeeds in covering up himself. He is labeled by his deeds and is as an open book.

A great Boston newspaper, in advertising itself in and around the city, printed the photograph of a certain man. He was to go about the city, visiting public places and to the person who could identify him, was offered a reward of $50. In less than three days his name was identified. It is impossible to go through life unlabeled. Some men take a glass of beer occasionally, thinking it a mild recreation but it requires only three or four visits to the saloon before he is labeled and it makes no difference whether he is from a palace or a cabin it requires no daring in prophecy as to his future. He is led into over-indulgence and beastly intoxication and the miserable end of his existence is indulgence in dissipation and return to old associations. He may succeed for a time but will think it smart and will return to it again, engaging more and more freely until his downfall. He places a tag on himself and on it can be read drunkenness, immorality, brutality and lust.

The business man sees a label on the young man who drinks, although the wearer may be blind to it. When you take the first glass you write a tag on yourself that all can read and men will turn away from you. The young man who carries a five cent novel does not realize that he is giving an insight into his entire inner life. The novel in his hand, and one not to be envied. On a railroad journey the lecturer sat near a man who had just laid aside a book and when it was handed to him, by his request, he saw that the title was "Evolution of Economics of America," by Carroll D. Wright. "Teacher, are you?" was asked and the affirmative answer proved that the label suggested by the book had been correct.

A young man, who on the crowded street of a city, rushed to the aid of an aged lady who had fallen, needed no further label as to his character. There is a variety of lines by which a man may label himself. No man succeeds in hiding himself but is an open book and across his breast, as a broad stretching sign, his sins or good deeds, success or failures, are written. Can we afford to write the wrong label? There can be no better talisman to mark a worthy life than the crimson cross of the crusades who fought for the tomb of their Christ. We cannot afford to write any other label. Young men should beware lest the alluring colors of hell are stamped over their breasts where all may read. The glorious colors of God are just as easy of access and will stamp the insignia of life and love with greater vividness. Keep unspotted from evil associations, for every deed writes its label. Beware lest some evil deed writes a label that will wreck your life.

THE REASONABLE SERVICE

Dr. Jones' Sermon on the Necessity for Dealing Justly With All Men.

"Your reasonable service," a portion of the first verse of the 17th chapter of Romans was the subject of Rev. Dr. Jones' sermon yesterday morning at the First M. P. church. The reasonableness of the Christian religion was touched upon. God asks nothing but what is reasonable.

"God's word enjoins that we deal justly with all men. What is more reasonable?" The discourse was at once logical and impressive, and the impression made by the pastor was a lasting one. The service was well attended and the interest manifest.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1903.

One highwayman has been caught and lodged in jail, but the evil work goes on just the same. It is plainly evident that the city is the abiding place of an element that must be got rid of before citizens can walk the streets in safety. Extra precautions and extra exertions should promptly be taken to that end. It is not necessary that the police should wait until somebody is assaulted and robbed before they act. They are authorized to arrest suspicious characters. Let them fill up the jail with such as answer to that description and then let work-house sentences be unsparingly imposed upon such as deserve them. Such action would have a wholesome effect. Make the evil doers afraid of the police, whose authority, it is plain, is neither feared nor respected now. As long as the hold-ups and assaults can take place and the perpetrators go scot free, the number of such outrages will continue to increase. The city has long had the reputation of being one where the laws were well enforced and good order maintained. It can and must sustain that reputation. There is no necessity and no reason for allowing thugs and hoodlums to hold undisputed sway. More police are undoubtedly needed, but more diligence, vigilance and effort on the part of the present force might compensate in part for the deficiency. Matters have been suffered to run on, going from bad to worse, too long. Every day the necessity for heroic measures is emphasized.

"There is a social scourge more blighting and more destructive of family life than Mormonism. It is the fearfully increasing number of divorce mills throughout the United States. These mills, like the mills of God, are slowly but surely grinding the domestic altars of the nation." These are the words of Cardinal Gibbons, and they state a solemn truth which should induce the thoughtful to cast about for a remedy.

When a peaceful adjustment was supposed to be near at hand, Germany suddenly destroyed a Venezuelan fort, incidentally killing a number of inoffensive persons in the adjacent village. Whatever the purpose of the series of aggressions, it certainly includes more than the collection of debts from a feeble little republic. It is, therefore, essential that the United States, the real object of the combination of the three powers, should be prepared to assert its just position with dignity and firmness.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

Two hundred excursionists have just had a narrow escape in the vicinity of Mount Pelee, the volcano having suddenly blown off its cap again. It is a queer place for picnic parties, but fools always appear to be fascinated by danger.

The entries for the Republican county primaries have closed. The list is not an unusually long one, but it embraces enough good material from which to select an excellent ticket.

Dirty streets disgrace a town. The present mild weather affords an opportunity for this city to wipe out at least a portion of a long standing disgrace. It should be taken advantage of.

The groundhog's prophecy is that winter will endure for six weeks. But the fellow is quite as likely as the rest of the weather prophets to be mistaken.

The Ohio river will do its part to end the coal famine. What a blessing a navigable stage of water all the time would be to the people of the great Ohio valley!

The municipal candidate who does not pledge himself to work for cleaner streets is neglecting a chance to make a strong bid for popular support.

German's ambassador says his government will respect the Monroe doctrine. Evidently the kaiser has stood idly to some purpose.

The way to stop the defiance of law in this city is to give the offenders sentences that they won't forget in a hurry.

The kaiser may not be aware of it, but he is strengthening American sentiment in favor of a stronger navy.

Delaware is a small state, but apparently too big for Mr. Addicks to carry around in his vest pocket.

Even the groundhog is out in opposition to dirty streets.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1903.

One highwayman has been caught and lodged in jail, but the evil work goes on just the same. It is plainly evident that the city is the abiding place of an element that must be got rid of before citizens can walk the streets in safety. Extra precautions and extra exertions should promptly be taken to that end. It is not necessary that the police should wait until somebody is assaulted and robbed before they act. They are authorized to arrest suspicious characters. Let them fill up the jail with such as answer to that description and then let workhouse sentences be unsparsingly imposed upon such as deserve them. Such action would have a wholesome effect. Make the evil doers afraid of the police, whose authority, it is plain, is neither feared nor respected now. As long as the hold-ups and assaults can take place and the perpetrators go scot free, the number of such outrages will continue to increase. The city has long had the reputation of being one where the laws were well enforced and good order maintained. It can and must sustain that reputation. There is no necessity and no reason for allowing thugs and hoodlums to hold undisputed sway. More police are undoubtedly needed, but more diligence, vigilance and effort on the part of the present force might compensate in part for the deficiency. Matters have been suffered to run on, going from bad to worse, too long. Every day the necessity for heroic measures is emphasized.

"There is a social scourge more blighting and more destructive of family life than Mormonism. It is the fearfully increasing number of divorce mills throughout the United States. These mills, like the mills of God, are slowly but surely grinding the domestic altars of the nation." These are the words of Cardinal Gibbons, and they state a solemn truth which should induce the thoughtful to cast about for a remedy.

When a peaceful adjustment was supposed to be near at hand, Germany suddenly destroyed a Venezuelan fort.

All Humors

Are impure matters which the skin, liver, kidneys and other organs can not take care of without help, there is such an accumulation of them. They litter the whole system. Pimples, boils, eczema and other eruptions, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, bilious turns, fits of indigestion, dull headaches and many other troubles are due to them.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Remove all humors, overcome all their effects, strengthen, tone and invigorate the whole system.

"I had salt rheum on my hands so that I could not work. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it drove out the humor. I continued its use till the sores disappeared." Mrs. Iva O. Brown, Rumford Falls, Me.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

Incidentally killing a number of inoffensive persons in the adjacent village. Whatever the purpose of the series of aggressions, it certainly includes more than the collection of debts from a feeble little republic. It is, therefore, essential that the United States, the real object of the combination of the three powers, should be prepared to assert its just position with dignity and firmness.

Two hundred excursionists have just had a narrow escape in the vicinity of Mount Pelée, the volcano having suddenly blown off its cap again. It is a queer place for picnic parties, but fools always appear to be fascinated by danger.

The entries for the Republican county primaries have closed. The list is not an unusually long one, but it embraces enough good material from which to select an excellent ticket.

Dirty streets disgrace a town. The present mild weather affords an opportunity for this city to wipe out at least a portion of a long standing disgrace. It should be taken advantage of.

The groundhog's prophecy is that winter will endure for six weeks. But the fellow is quite as likely as the rest of the weather prophets to be mistaken.

The Ohio river will do its part to end the coal famine. What a blessing a navigable stage of water all the time would be to the people of the great Ohio valley!

The municipal candidate who does not pledge himself to work for cleaner streets is neglecting a chance to make a strong bid for popular support.

German's ambassador says his government will respect the Monroe doctrine. Evidently the kaiser has studied it to some purpose.

The way to stop the defiance of law in this city is to give the offenders sentences that they won't forget in a hurry.

The kaiser may not be aware of it, but he is strengthening American sentiment in favor of a stronger navy.

Delaware is a small state, but apparently too big for Mr. Addicks to carry around in his vest pocket.

Even the groundhog is out in opposition to dirty streets.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1903.

One highwayman has been caught and lodged in jail, but the evil work goes on just the same. It is plainly evident that the city is the abiding place of an element that must be got rid of before citizens can walk the streets in safety. Extra precautions and extra exertions should promptly be taken to that end. It is not necessary that the police should wait until somebody is assaulted and robbed before they act. They are authorized to arrest suspicious characters. Let them fill up the jail with such as answer to that description and then let work-house sentences be unsparingly imposed upon such as deserve them. Such action would have a wholesome effect. Make the evil doers afraid of the police, whose authority, it is plain, is neither feared nor respected now. As long as the hold-ups and assaults can take place and the perpetrators go scot free, the number of such outrages will continue to increase. The city has long had the reputation of being one where the laws were well enforced and good order maintained. It can and must sustain that reputation. There is no necessity and no reason for allowing thugs and hoodlums to hold undisputed sway. More police are undoubtedly needed, but more diligence, vigilance and effort on the part of the present force might compensate in part for the deficiency. Matters have been suffered to run on, going from bad to worse, too long. Every day the necessity for heroic measures is emphasized.

The way to stop the defiance of law in this city is to give the offenders sentences that they won't forget in a hurry.

The Kaiser may not be aware of it, but he is strengthening American sentiment in favor of a stronger navy.

Delaware is a small state, but apparently too big for Mr. Addicks to carry around in his vest pocket.

Even the groundhog is out in opposition to dirty streets.

Lisbon, February 2.—(Special)—Mrs. Catherine Figley Eells died at the home of her son-in-law, William H. Johnson, in this city at 6 o'clock Sunday in her ninety-sixth year. Mrs. Eells was a well preserved woman, having enjoyed good health until about three weeks ago, and having

All Humors

Are impure matters which the skin, liver, kidneys and other organs can not take care of without help, there is such an accumulation of them.

They litter the whole system. Pimples, boils, eczema and other eruptions, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, bilious turns, fits of indigestion, dull headaches and many other troubles are due to them.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Remove all humors, overcome all their effects, strengthen, tone and invigorate the whole system.

"I had salt rheum on my hands so that I could not work. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it drove out the humor. I continued its use till the sores disappeared." Mrs. Ika O. Brown, Rumford Falls, Me.

Incidentally killing a number of inoffensive persons in the adjacent village. Whatever the purpose of the series of aggressions, it certainly includes more than the collection of debts from a feeble little republic. It is, therefore, essential that the United States, the real object of the combination of the three powers, should be prepared to assert its just position with dignity and firmness.

Two hundred excursionists have just had a narrow escape in the vicinity of Mount Pelée, the volcano having suddenly blown off its cap again. It is a queer place for picnic parties, but fools always appear to be fascinated by danger.

The entries for the Republican county primaries have closed. The list is not an unusually long one, but it embraces enough good material from which to select an excellent ticket.

Dirty streets disgrace a town. The present mild weather affords an opportunity for this city to wipe out at least a portion of a long standing disgrace. It should be taken advantage of.

The groundhog's prophecy is that winter will endure for six weeks. But the fellow is quite as likely as the rest of the weather prophets to be mistaken.

The municipal candidate who does not pledge himself to work for cleaner streets is neglecting a chance to make a strong bid for popular support.

She was born in Washington county, Pa., October 28, 1807, the daughter of Abram and Catherine Donaldson Figley. In 1898 her parents came to Columbiana county, settling west of Lisbon, since which time she has lived in this county. She was married to Erasmus Eells November 23, 1842, and they took up their residence in Lisbon soon afterwards. Mr. Eells died in 1892 at the age of 84. Four children were born to them, two of whom, Mrs. William H. Johnson and Mrs. Robert Armstrong, both of Lisbon, survive.

Mr. Eells' parents came here from Connecticut in 1817. Funeral services will be held at the house Wednesday afternoon, Rev. A. W. Lytle, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, with which she united many years ago, will officiate. Interment in the Lisbon cemetery.

PRESIDENT OF COUNCIL

Robert Bursner, a Well Known Business Man, Candidate for the Place.

Formal announcement is made today of the candidacy of Robert Bursner for the position of president of the new city council.

Mr. Bursner is one of the city's best known and most enterprising young business men, and though he owes his present good standing in business circles entirely to his own efforts, he has attained a place of prominence among the foremost of East Liverpool's best citizens. He is amply qualified to fill the position to which he aspires, and if the Republicans of the city see fit to place him upon its ticket at the spring election, his name will add materially to the strength of the party line-up.

Family of Six Drowned.

Vicksburg, Miss., Feb. 2.—Two cars from a westbound freight train broke away at the incline of the Queen and Crescent railway here last night and rushing down the grade plunged into the river. One was a combination freight and immigration car, and it is said, contained a family of six persons, all of whom were drowned. Neither the names of the immigrants nor the place they were from could be ascertained. Divers are searching for the bodies.

Skull Fractured.

Lancaster, Pa., Feb. 2.—William Mohow, aged 35, a Conestoga Traction company conductor, was fatally hurt yesterday morning while running on the Strasburg line. For some unknown reason Mohow thrust his head from the side of his car, evidently to look forward. He was struck by a pole and knocked from the car, sustaining a fracture of the skull. Several hours later he died at St. Joseph's hospital. Mohow had run over this line many times.

Militia Called Out.

Waterbury, Conn., Feb. 2.—Eight companies of the First regiment, Connecticut national guard, and six companies of the Second regiment, with two galling guns, were called to Waterbury last night at the command of Governor Chamberlain, because of "the imperative need" occasioned by the trolley strike situation. The riot about the streets Saturday night, coupled with threats of further disturbances last night, led to the call for troops. There was no repetition yesterday of the violence of Saturday night, but crowds congregated about the streets, and had to be dispersed by the police.

WELLSVILLE

HOUSE AND CONTENTS DAMAGED BY FIRE

An Exciting Blaze in a Wellsville Dwelling on Saturday Night.

Shortly before 6 o'clock Saturday evening fire broke out in the two-story frame dwelling on Liverpool street owned by A. R. Wells and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Thompson, which before it was extinguished, resulted in damaging the house and its contents to the extent of from $300 to $400.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson were both out for the evening and left the gas in the kitchen range turned up quite high. The flames gradually reached the walls and before the fire was discovered by neighbors, the entire kitchen was ablaze. The neighbors soon formed a bucket brigade, after breaking into the kitchen, and an alarm was sent in by telephone to police headquarters.

The bucket brigade failed to do very much towards putting out the fire, and by the time the fire department arrived the entire rear portion of the house was enveloped in flames and smoke. It took one half hour to put out the fire, but it was finally extinguished.

Considerable damage was done to the interior of the house by water, aside from the damage wrought by the flames and smoke. The household furniture and the building are totally covered by insurance.

POSTMASTER'S TERM NEAR TO THE END

Wellsville Expects to Know Today Who Will Be Chosen to the Office.

At midnight tomorrow night, Postmaster T. R. Snowden's time as postmaster of the city will be up, and it is now reported around the city that he is to be reappointed, although no legal authority can be gained for this report.

Many candidates have been making strenuous efforts to gain the appointment, but it is not yet known who the coming postmaster is to be. Those who are after the appointment are Squire A. G. MacKenzie, James Nolan, John F. McQueen and Charles R. MacGregor, Jr. Mr. Snowden, who desires to be reappointed, has an advantage in the race, in that he has been recommended to the president by Congressman Taylor, James Nolan seems to be the favored candidate of the people, although he may not win the appointment. The appointment will probably be made some time today or tomorrow.

Fine Entertainment.

Misses Porter, Johnson, Blackburn, and Tinker are the young ladies who comprise the famous Wagner Ladies' Quartet and who will give an entertainment at the United Presbyterian church Thursday evening of this week, under the auspices of the C. Too much cannot be said of the quartet. The ladies are all first class vocalists and come to this city highly recommended.

Funeral of Miss Caulfield.

The remains of Miss May Caulfield, who died Friday evening, were taken to Dayton, O., on the 6:30 train Saturday evening by the bereaved parents, where funeral services will be held and final interment made. Miss Caulfield was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Caulfield, of Fourteenth street. Mr. Caulfield is the superintendent of the Carroll-Porter Boiler works. Three other children survive.

The ladies of the Roman Catholic Immaculate Conception church have banded together recently and formed an organization known as the Catholic Mutual Benefit association. THE CHURCH FAIR A GRAND SUCCESS

Ladies of the Catholic Church Are Highly Elated And Will Try It Again Tonight.

The third night of the fair being held by the ladies of the Catholic church proved how popular the idea was in this vicinity. Over 2,000 people attended the fair Saturday night and so much interest was manifested that it was decided to continue the fair again tonight. The financial success of the venture has far exceeded the fondest anticipations of any one concerned. The ladies of the church have worked faithfully for three weeks arranging for the fair and their success shows that the management had been placed in competent hands.

Close to $3,000 will be realized, which will place the church on its feet financially right at the start. A literary program was given in the early part of the evening, and after it was finished the balance of the time was devoted to having a good time. It was about midnight when the crowds left and it required eight cars to bring the people across the river. Many had already left before that time, and it is estimated that more than half of the residents of Chester were present at some time in the evening. The windup of the fair tonight will probably draw a large crowd and will swell the receipts very materially. A gold watch which was raffled off by the ladies brought over $400 to the organization.

CANDIDATES PLENTIFUL FOR MUNICIPAL BERTHS

Council Will Make Its Choice from the Several Offices at Meeting Tonight.

At tonight's meeting of the newly elected council of Chester the sergeant, street commissioner and city solicitor will be chosen. At the time the call for the meeting was issued it was asked that all applications for these positions be filed not later than Saturday night, January 31.

So far the following names have been filed: For solicitor, George H. Ingram, sergeant, J. H. Allison, Thompson Allison, Henry Logan and F. F. Steadman, street commissioner, Samuel Allison. There may be other candidates that will make application today and it is expected that one or two more will try to street commissioner. It is thought though that no other names will be received for the other offices. No inkling has been given out by the members of council as to who the lucky ones will be. Very little business will be transacted to night aside from the election of these officials. Their salaries will probably be decided upon at the next meeting.

Mill Men Invited.

Rev. E. C. Lindsey, of the Chester M. E. church, is making a special effort to reach the mill men with the present series of revival meetings which he is now holding. Cards have been distributed among the employees of the mill, extending them a special invitation to be present. Mrs. Emma Napier Masser will enliven the meetings with her singing. These meetings have been attended by large crowds and great interest has been manifested.

For Another Term.

Congressman Dovenor has recommended to the president the reappointment of J. B. Campbell as postmaster at New Cumberland, and the appointment will no doubt be made promptly. Mr. Campbell is a most efficient and popular postmaster.

CHESTER NOTES.

Miss Maggie Runyon has returned to her home in Wellsville after a short visit with her sister, Mrs. Frank Billman, of First street.

Samuel Jackson left Saturday for a short visit at his home in Grove City, Pa.

Tom Fowler is back at his place at the Chester grocery today, the first time for several weeks.

A BIG MONTH AT THE LIBRARY

Carnegie Institution Had a Greater Number of Patrons than Ever Before.

An excellent report of the Carnegie public library has been given for the past month, showing a large increase in the patronage. During the month Miss Mary Hall, assistant librarian, was absent from her duties owing to the death of her mother. Her place was filled by Miss Ida Watson. The report for the month follows:

"The Carnegie library was open 29 days during the month of January, 26 days for the issue of books and four Sundays for reading. The library is well patronized on Sunday afternoons. The total number of books loaned was 4,451, an increase of 925 over the circulation of December. The attendance during the month was the largest in the history of the library, being 8,579."

The annual report of the Massillon library, which has 12,000 volumes, shows an average circulation of 136 per day, which is 35 less than the number loaned from the Carnegie library.

HOUSE AND CONTENTS DAMAGED BY FIRE

An Exciting Blaze in a Wellsville Dwelling on Saturday Night.

Shortly before 6 o'clock Saturday evening fire broke out in the two-story frame dwelling on Liverpool street owned by A. R. Wells and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Thompson, which before it was extinguished, resulted in damaging the house and its contents to the extent of from $300 to $400.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson were both out for the evening and left the gas in the kitchen range turned up quite high. The floor underneath the stove caught fire. The flames gradually reached the walls and before the fire was discovered by neighbors, the entire kitchen was ablaze. The neighbors soon formed a bucket brigade, after breaking into the kitchen, and an alarm was sent in by telephone to police headquarters.

The bucket brigade failed to do very much towards putting out the fire, and by the time the fire department arrived the entire rear portion of the house was enveloped in flames and smoke. It took one half hour to put out the fire, but it was finally extinguished.

Considerable damage was done to the interior of the house by water, aside from the damage wrought by the flames and smoke. The household furniture and the building are totally covered by insurance.

THE CHURCH FAIR A GRAND SUCCESS

Ladies of the Catholic Church Are Highly Elated And Will Try It Again Tonight.

The third night of the fair being held by the ladies of the Catholic church proved how popular the idea was in this vicinity. Over 2,000 people attended the fair Saturday night and so much interest was manifested that it was decided to continue the fair again tonight. The financial success of the venture has far exceeded the fondest anticipations of anyone concerned. The ladies of the church have worked faithfully for three weeks arranging for the fair and their success shows that the management had been placed in competent hands.

Close to $3,000 will be realized, which will place the church on its feet financially right at the start. A literary program was given in the early part of the evening, and after it was finished the balance of the time was devoted to having a good time. It was about midnight when the crowds left and it required eight cars to bring the people across the river. Many had already left before that time, and it is estimated that more than half of the residents of Chester were present at some time in the evening. The windup of the fair tonight will probably draw a large crowd and will swell the receipts very materially. A gold watch which was raffled off by the ladies brought over $400 to the organization.

Candidates plentiful for municipal berths. Council will make its choice from the several offices at meeting tonight.

At tonight's meeting of the newly elected council of Chester the sergeant, street commissioner and city solicitor will be chosen. At the time the call for the meeting was issued it was asked that all applications for these positions be filed not later than Saturday night, January 31.

So far the following names have been filed: For solicitor, George H. Ingram; sergeant, J. H. Allison; Thompson Allison, Henry Logan and F. F. Steadman; street commissioner, Samuel Allison. There may be other candidates that will make application today and it is expected that one or two more will try to be street commissioner. It is thought though that no other names will be received for the other offices. No inkling has been given out by the members of council as to who the lucky ones will be. Very little business will be transacted tonight aside from the election of these officials. Their salaries will probably be decided upon at the next meeting.

Mill Men Invited.

Rev. E. C. Lindsey, of the Chester M. E. church, is making a special effort to reach the mill men with the present series of revival meetings which he is now holding. Cards have been distributed among the employees of the mill, extending them a special invitation to be present. Mrs. Emma Maple Musser will enliven the meetings with her singing. These meetings have been attended by large crowds and great interest has been manifested.

For Another Term.

Congressman Dovenor has recommended to the president the reappointment of J. B. Campbell as postmaster at New Cumberland, and the appointment will no doubt be made promptly. Mr. Campbell is a most efficient and popular postmaster.

CHESTER NOTES.

A BIG MONTH

AT THE LIBRARY

Carnegie Institution Had a Greater Number of Patrons Than Ever Before.

An excellent report of the Carnegie public library has been given for the past month, showing a large increase in the patronage. During the month Miss Mary Hall, assistant librarian, was absent from her duties owing to the death of her mother. Her place was filled by Miss Ida Watson. The report for the month follows:

"The Carnegie library was open 39 days during the month of January, 26 days for the issue of books and four Sundays for reading. The library is well patronized on Sunday afternoons. The total number of books loaned was 4,451, an increase of 935 over the circulation of December. The attendance during the month was the largest in the history of the library, being 8,579."

The annual report of the Massillon library, which has 12,000 volumes shows an average circulation of 136 per day, which is 25 less than the number loaned from the Carnegie library.

WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

HOUSE AND SENATE.

Statehood Bill Will Hold Place as Unfinished Business in Upper Body.

MR. QUAY HAS CHANGED TACTICS

Anti-Trust Bill, Scheduled for Early Consideration in Lower Body This Week, May Be Again Postponed. Late Senator McMillan Eulogized.

Washington, Feb. 2.—The omnibus statehood bill will continue for the present to hold its place as the unfinished business in the senate calendar, but it seems quite probable that the discussion of the statehood bill will come up in connection with the appropriation bills. Senator Quay has entirely changed his tactics during the past week, and after trying in vain to secure a quorum for night sessions on two different occasions has abandoned all efforts in that direction, leaving the senators who oppose the statehood bill to take the responsibility for delay. He now apparently is the least concerned of all senators to secure late sessions. He makes no confidants, but it is evident that it is his purpose to make his fight in connection with the appropriation bills and to secure promises to vote for a statehood rider to one of the appropriation bills.

May Be Ruled Out of Order.

Thus far there has not been delay on any supply measure on account of the statehood debate, but there will be a decided effort to attach the statehood amendment to the agricultural appropriation bill. It is expected that the amendment will be ruled out on a point of order, in which event there will be an appeal from the decision of the chair. It is quite possible, however, that the question may be submitted to the senate without a ruling by the chair. This plan has been pursued in other cases and has been found to work satisfactorily. The supporters of the omnibus statehood bill intend to seek to add the statehood bill to more than one of the appropriation bills. Senator Cullom will attempt to secure consideration of the Cuban treaty, but until the statehood bill shall be disposed of all speculation as to what may be done with other questions is idle.

House Forecast.

The anti-trust bill which was scheduled for early consideration in the house this week will not come up until late in the week, if at all, and possibly may be postponed until next week. The friends of the currency bill are exceedingly anxious to get consideration for it and a rule has been prepared. If it finally should be decided to allow the currency bill to come in after the postoffice appropriation bill is disposed of the anti-trust bill would be shut out this week. The Democrats and Republicans have been conferring about the limit of the anti-trust bill debate and a tentative agreement has been reached to allow two days' general debate on the measure. Today is suspension day, and a number of minor matters, which ordinarily would be passed by unanimous consent, but consideration of which is blocked by the refusal of Mr. Moon, of Tennessee, to allow any bill to receive unanimous consent until the Indian territory bill is considered, was acted on. Tomorrow has been set aside for consideration of the 13 claims bills to which Mr. Payne, of New York, objected Saturday.

In the House.

The house met at noon yesterday for the purpose of pronouncing eulogies in memory of the late Senator McMillan, of Michigan. The speakers were Messrs. Corliss, W. A. Smith, Hamilton, S. W. Smith, Gardner and Henry C. Smith, of Michigan; Babcock, of Wisconsin, and Burton, of Ohio. At 1:35 o'clock, as a further mark of respect, the house adjourned.

Twenty-Five Baptized.

Dunbar, Pa., Feb. 2.—With a chilly wind blowing a gale and the thermometer 10 degrees below freezing 25 persons were immersed in the icy waters of Tucker run yesterday afternoon. Two weeks ago Evangelist Alex D. Moore, of Uniontown, started a series of protracted meetings in the mountain fastnesses, seven miles south of this place. Yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock the converts left the little mountain school house and braved the storm to be baptized in the mountain stream. Many almost perished from the cold, as the nearest house was a half mile from the place of immersion. When the evangelist immersed the last candidate he was almost prostrated from effect of the icy water.

Saloon Fight Ends in Death.

Youngstown, O., Feb. 2.—John Schoonbecker, a Hungarian, who a week ago was attacked by Paul Vanko and three other Hungarians in a saloon fight, died at the city hospital last night. Vanko is under arrest.

MISS CLARA BARTON'S LETTER

Says Article IV of Red Cross Constitution Was Endorsed by President Arthur and Others.

New York, Feb. 2.—Replying to the recent letter of President's Secretary George B. Cortelyou, requesting that a public announcement be made that the president of the United States and his cabinet cannot serve as a board of consultation of the American National Red Cross, Miss Clara Barton, president of the society, has addressed an explanatory letter to President Roosevelt.

Referring to article IV of the constitution of the Red Cross, providing for a board of consultation, consisting of the president and his cabinet and certain high officials of the army, Miss Barton points out that this provision was fully endorsed by President Arthur and his entire cabinet and accepted by succeeding administrations.

Continuing, Miss Barton writes: "I recite these facts to you, Mr. President, as an earnest that neither was usurpation practiced nor discourtesy intended in the late needed changes of the article of the constitution. "Thus, Mr. President, if in the continuing of your honored name and that of your cabinet in our administration of the Red Cross, I have committed an error so grave as to merit a reprimand and be required to make an open denial before the world of the privileges I have assumed, the powers I have usurped, the disrespect shown the honored heads of the nation and my unavoidable and deep humiliation thereat, I shall prove my good citizenship by exact and willing conformity with and obedience to the command by the publication of your honored letter, and such replies as I have been able to make, in order that no misunderstanding of your relations can possibly occur."

The letter concludes thus: "Trusting that these concessions, faithfully submitted, may prove a sufficient notice and guarantee to the public of the disconnection which you desire from the organization which I have so long had the pain to conduct. I have the honor to subscribe myself, "Your obedient countrywoman," Clara Barton."

SHOCKING CRIME OF RUSSIANS

Twenty-One of Them Kick and Stab to Death a Fellow-Countryman—All Under Arrest.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 2.—Constanta Sborerfiski, a Russian and a well-known coal miner, who had worked during the strike, was yesterday kicked and stabbed to death by 21 of his infuriated countrymen, who are all either miners or laborers working in and about the mines at Plymouth and Larksville, three miles from this city. The party had all been at a dance during Saturday, many of them not returning to their homes until noon yesterday. The deed was committed on the public highway, near the Boston mine breaker at Larksville. The murdered man, with almost every bone in his body broken, was removed to the nearest undertaking establishment.

One of the gang, named Powell Ladofski, confessed to being implicated in the killing and the other 20 assassins were all rounded up by 7 o'clock yesterday evening and committed to the Luzerne county prison. A blood-stained handkerchief belonging to the murdered man was found in possession of William Krovitski as he was being searched in the warder's office. It was one of the most dastardly crimes that has ever been committed in this county.

Six Hundred Carpenters Strike.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 2.—Six hundred carpenters and joiners affiliated with the local unions, comprising the Wyoming Valley district, went on a strike this morning. Of the 50 build-ers doing business in this section only three have signified a willingness to accede to the demands of the $2.65 to $3 a day.

Killed by Nitroglycerin.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Feb. 2.—Frank H. Sanderson, 35 years old, an oil well shooter, was killed by the premature explosion of 20 quarts of nitroglycerin, and Fred Krebs, 24 years old, was fatally injured, in Tyler county. The engine house, boiler and rig were wrecked.

HOUSE AND SENATE.

Statehood Bill Will Hold Place as Unfinished Business in Upper Body.

MR. QUAY HAS CHANGED TACTICS

Anti-Trust Bill, Scheduled for Early Consideration in Lower Body This Week, May Be Again Postponed. Late Senator McMillan Eulogized.

Washington, Feb. 2.—The omnibus statehood bill will continue for the present to hold its place as the unfinished business in the senate calendar, but it seems quite probable that the discussion of the statehood bill will come up in connection with the appropriation bills, Senator Quay has entirely changed his tactics during the past week, and after trying in vain to secure a quorum for night sessions on two different occasions has abandoned all efforts in that direction, leaving the senators who oppose the statehood bill to take the responsibility for delay. He now apparently is the least concerned of all senators to secure late sessions. He makes no confidants, but it is evident that it is his purpose to make his fight in connection with the appropriation bills and to secure promises to vote for a statehood bill to one of the appropriation bills.

May Be Ruled Out of Order. Thus far there has not been delay on any supply measure on account of the statehood debate, but there will be a decided effort to attach the statehood amendment to the agricultural appropriation bill. It is expected that the amendment will be ruled out on a point of order, in which event there will be an appeal from the decision of the chair. It is quite possible, however, that the question may be submitted to the senate without a ruling by the chair. This plan has been pursued in other cases and has been found to work satisfactorily. The supporters of the omnibus statehood bill intend to seek to add the statehood bill to more than one of the appropriation bills. Senator Culom will attempt to secure consideration of the Cuban treaty, but until the statehood bill shall be disposed of all speculation as to what may be done with other questions is idle.

House Forecast. The anti-trust bill which was scheduled for early consideration in the house this week will not come up until late in the week, if at all, and possibly may be postponed until next week. The friends of the currency bill are exceedingly anxious to get consideration for it and a rule has been prepared. If it finally should be decided to allow the currency bill to come in after the postoffice appropriation bill is disposed of the anti-trust bill would be shut out this week. The Democrats and Republicans have been conferring about the limit of the anti-trust bill debate and a tentative agreement has been reached to allow two days' general debate on the measure. Today is suspension day, and a number of minor matters, which ordinarily would be passed by unanimous consent, but consideration of which is blocked by the refusal of Mr. Moon, of Tennessee, to allow any bill to receive unanimous consent until the Indian territory bill is considered, was acted on. Tomorrow has been set aside for consideration of the 13 claims bills to which Mr. Payne, of New York, objected Saturday.

In the House. The house met at noon yesterday for the purpose of pronouncing eulogies in memory of the late Senator McMillan, of Michigan. The speakers were Messrs. Corliss, W. A. Smith, Hamilton, S. W. Smith, Gardner and Henry C. Smith, of Michigan; Babcock, of Wisconsin; and Burton, of Ohio. At 1:35 o'clock, as a further mark of respect, the house adjourned.

Twenty-Five Baptized. Dunbar, Pa., Feb. 2.—With a chilly wind blowing a gale and the thermometer 10 degrees below freezing 25 persons were immersed in the icy waters of Tucker run yesterday afternoon. Two weeks ago Evangelist Alex Dittmore, of Uniontown, started a series of protracted meetings in the mountain fastnesses, seven miles south of this place. Yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock the converts left the little mountain school house and braved the storm to be baptized in the mountain stream. Many almost perished from the cold, as the nearest house was a half mile from the place of immersion. When the evangelist immersed the last candidate he was almost prostrated from effect of the icy water.

Stabbed Nine Times. Youngstown, O., Feb. 2.—Late Saturday night, at Brier hill, Thomas H. Delph was stabbed nine times with a penknife in the neck and face by Patrick Welsh. The men boarded at the same place and Welsh had a dispute with his landlady. Delph made a remark that angered Welsh and when they met Friday at midnight in a saloon Delph tried to get away, but Welsh followed. Delph may recover. Welsh was arrested.

Saloon Fight Ends in Death. Youngstown, O., Feb. 2.—John Scho bovcho, a Hungarian, who a week ago was attacked by Paul Yanko and three other Huns in a saloon fight, died at the city hospital last night. Yanko is under arrest.

MISS CLARA BARTON'S LETTER

Says Article IV of Red Cross Constitution Was Endorsed by President Arthur and Others.

New York, Feb. 2.—Replying to the recent letter of President's Secretary George B. Cortelyou, requesting that a public announcement be made that the president of the United States and his cabinet cannot serve as a board of consultation of the American National Red Cross, Miss Clara Barton, president of the society, has addressed an explanatory letter to President Roosevelt.

Referring to article IV of the constitution of the Red Cross, providing for a board of consultation, consisting of the president and his cabinet and certain high officials of the army, Miss Barton points out that this provision was fully endorsed by President Arthur and his entire cabinet and accepted by succeeding administrations.

Continuing, Miss Barton writes: "I write these facts to you, Mr. President, as an earnest that neither was usurpation practiced nor discourtesy intended in the late needed changes of the article of the constitution."

"Thus, Mr. President, if in the continuing of your honored name and that of your cabinet in our administration of the Red Cross, I have committed an error so grave as to merit a reprimand and be required to make an open denial before the world of the privileges I have assumed, the powers I have usurped, the disrespect shown the honored heads of the nation and my unavoidable and deep humiliation thereat, I shall prove my good citizenship by exact and willing conformity with and obedience to the command by the publication of your honored letter, and such replies as I have been able to make, in order that no misunderstanding of your relations can possibly occur."

The letter concludes thus: "Trusting that these concessions, faithfully submitted, may prove a sufficient notice and guarantee to the public of the disconnection which you desire from the organization which I have so long had the pain to conduct, I have the honor to subscribe myself, 'Your obedient countrywoman.' 'Clara Barton.'"

SHOCKING CRIME OF RUSSIANS

Twenty-One of Them Kick and Stab to Death a Fellow-Countryman—All Under Arrest.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 2.—Constanta Soverliski, a Russian and a well-known coal miner, who had worked during the strike, was yesterday kicked and stabbed to death by 21 of his infuriated countrymen, who are all either miners or laborers working in and about the mines at Plymouth and Larksville, three miles from this city. The party had all been at a dance during Saturday, many of them not returning to their homes until noon yesterday. The deed was committed on the public highway, near the Boston mine breaker at Larksville. The murdered man, with at most every bone in his body broken, was removed to the nearest undertaking establishment.

One of the gang, named Powell Ladofski, confessed to being implicated in the killing and the other 20 assassins were all rounded up by 7 o'clock yesterday evening and committed to the Luzerne county prison. A blood-stained handkerchief belonging to the murdered man was found in possession of William Krovitski as he was being searched in the wardens office. It was one of the most dastardly crimes that has ever been committed in this county.

Six Hundred Carpenters Strike. Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 2.—Six hundred carpenters and joiners affiliated with the local unions, comprising the Wyoming Valley district, went on a strike this morning. Of the 50 builders doing business in this section only three have signified a willingness to accede to the demands of the $2.65 to $3 a day.

Killed by Nitroglycerin. Parkersburg, W. Va., Feb. 2.—Frank H. Sanderson, 35 years old, an oil well shooter, was killed by the premature explosion of 20 quarts of nitroglycerin, and Fred Krebs, 24 years old, was fatally injured, in Tyler county. The engine house, boiler and rig were wrecked.

MAY BE COMPROMISE

Propositions of This Nature Have Been Submitted to Allies By Representatives.

OTHERS MUST BE CONSIDERED.

France Has It in Her Power to Continue Present Deadlock in Venezuelan Negotiations and May Revive Right of Direct Collection of Debt

Washington, Feb. 2.—Propositions involving the compromise of the allied powers' contention for preferential treatment in the settlement of their claims against Venezuela have been submitted to the governments of Great Britain, Germany and Italy by their representatives at Washington and while no answers have been received as yet there is reason for the belief that the allies will see a way to accept the latest proposition. This compromise has been suggested by one of the representatives of the allies here, and, however, while it has not formally received the endorsement of Minister Bowen, it is felt that he will not enter serious objection to its adoption, provided the United States and the other claimant nations outside the alliance can be convinced that their own interests in Venezuela will not be substantially injured by yielding to a plan which seems to offer a solution of the present serious hitch in the Washington negotiations.

Details Not Obtainable.
The details of the proposition now under consideration by the three allied nations are not obtainable, but in a general way it is understood to be a modification of the allies' contention that they be recognized as Venezuela's preferred claimants in the payment of the indemnity. The plan suggested provides that for a short period, perhaps six months or a year, Great Britain, Germany and Italy shall receive exclusively 30 per cent of the customs receipts of the ports of Port Cabello and La Guaira, and that at the end of this period, the exact length of which is yet open to decision, that all the claimant nations be placed on the same footing and at the expiration of that time the 30 per cent of the receipts of these two ports be divided among all the claimant nations in ratio, based on the amount of each nation's claim.

The plan is regarded as a compromise, which will enable the allies to withdraw their ships from Venezuelan waters without a serious loss of prestige.

Whether the claimant nations outside the tripartite agreement will assent to this scheme is not yet known.

France has it in her power to continue the present deadlock in the Washington negotiations. For while the other allied claimants have outstanding against Venezuela certain unadjusted claims, all of the French claims are in a very forward state.

Blockade Hampered France.
France contends that so far from assisting her in the collection of her Venezuelan claims the blockade, if anything, has hampered her in that it has closed all the Venezuelan ports to commerce and has prevented for the time being the collection of the 13 per cent of the receipts pledged her by treaty.

It is the hope of the representatives of the allies at Washington that in case their governments accept in principle the kind of compromise suggested they will not insist that the period for preferential payments be made so long as to prevent its acceptance by the other claimant nations.

Mr. Bowen has been assured that the representatives of the allies here will give him a final answer at the earliest possible moment. Meantime exchanges are still in progress between the allied governments and their respective embassies here in the effort to agree on a plan of settlement that will be acceptable at once to Venezuela and to the octagonal alliance of France, Belgium, Spain, Denmark, Holland, Norway, Sweden and the United States.

Castro Wants All Treated Alike.
Caracas, Feb. 2.—In reply to Minister Bowen's inquiry as to what Venezuela intends to do regarding the demand for preferential treatment made by the allies, President Castro has telegraphed:

"The Venezuelan government desires equal treatment for all the creditor nations in Europe and America, keeping in mind, in addition, its diplomatic conventions and anterior stipulations."

The French legation has notified the Venezuelan government that in virtue of the convention of 1867 France was allowed to collect directly a part of the revenues of several customs houses in Venezuela as a guarantee for her diplomatic claims arising out of the previous revolutions. France, it is said, renounced forever by the convention of 1885 the exercise of this right on condition that the interest on this debt should always be regularly paid. As this payment has not been made France, without asking authorization of Germany, England and Italy, intends to revive her right of direct collection. French Charge d'Affaires Quieres has paid visits to the foreign ministry and has twice called on President Castro during the past 48 hours. This activity in connection with her intention to revive her rights, and is considered as an answer to the attitude adopted by the allied powers.

Will Sell to United States.
Washington, Feb. 2.—Both Argentina and Chile, through their respective ministers in Washington, have proposed to the United States the purchase by this government of the armored cruisers and battleships the two South American countries have under construction in Europe. Argentina has two armored cruisers under construction in Italy and Chile two battleships under construction in England.

IT WILL BE A BLOW TO FARMERS' SOCIETIES

Law Providing a Tax to Benefit Agricultural Organizations Unconstitutional.

Columbus, February 2.—(Special)—Attorney General Sheets has given an opinion which will cause consternation among the county agricultural societies of the state. Replying to a question submitted by the prosecutor of Lawrence county, he holds that a law providing for the payment of a per capita tax by each county to these associations is unconstitutional on the ground that the legislature has no power to enact a law requiring a county to pay money to a corporation.

As many county agricultural societies are wholly dependent upon their remittance from the county, the opinion comes in the nature of a death blow to them. The Lawrence county society will bring suit to test the ruling, but the attorney general says he has no fear as to the result.

WILL DISCONTINUE FAST TRAIN.

Freight Congestion Will Stop Pennsylvania Special Between New York and Chicago Shortly.

Philadelphia, Feb. 2.—Discontinuation of the Pennsylvania special, the 20-hour train between New York and Chicago, over the Pennsylvania railroad and the Fort Wayne, will be ordered within a few days. Freight congestion is the cause for this action. For several months it has been found impossible to maintain on this train a fast schedule assigned to it without a frightful sacrifice to freight traffic. S. M. Prevost, third vice president of the road, said when asked about the reported withdrawal of the train: "We have been doing everything in our power to facilitate the movement of coal, but find we cannot meet the demands on our system without sacrificing some of our fast trains."

"On Thursday next the first move in this direction will be made, when the 20-hour special between New York and Chicago will be discontinued. "The high speed at which this train is run to make the schedule time necessitates the keeping of the tracks clear to avoid accident, and the extreme care thus taken to protect the public from possible injury interferes seriously with the freight traffic." The running of this train will not be renewed until the congestion of freight is fully relieved.

Law Providing a Tax to Benefit Agricultural Organizations Unconstitutional.

Columbus, February 2.—(Special)—Attorney General Sheets has given an opinion which will cause consternation among the county agricultural societies of the state. As many county agricultural societies are wholly dependent upon their remittance from the county, the opinion comes in the nature of a death blow to them. The Lawrence county society will bring suit to test the ruling, but the attorney general says he has no fear as to the result.

Ex-Governor Long Improving.

Boston, Feb. 2.—The reports yesterday from the bedside of ex-Governor Long were of a character to give renewed hope of his ultimate recovery. The attending physician and a few others in a position to know positively have heretofore been reluctant, but the impression reflected from the bulletins of the past 24 hours was one of encouragement, and those in attendance made no attempt last night to conceal the fact that the day had been very satisfactory from a medical standpoint.

WILL DISCONTINUE FAST TRAIN.

Freight Congestion Will Stop Pennsylvania Special Between New York and Chicago Shortly.

Philadelphia, Feb. 2.—Discontinuation of the Pennsylvania special, the 20-hour train between New York and Chicago, over the Pennsylvania railroad and the Fort Wayne, will be ordered within a few days. Freight congestion is the cause for this action. For several months it has been found impossible to maintain on this train a fast schedule assigned to it without a freight sacrifice to freight traffic. S. M. Prevost, third vice president of the road, said when asked about the reported withdrawal of the train:

"We have been doing everything in our power to facilitate the movement of coal, but find we cannot meet the demands on our system without sacrificing some of our fast trains."

"On Thursday next the first move in this direction will be made, when the 20-hour special between New York and Chicago will be discontinued."

"The high speed at which this train is run to make the schedule time necessitates the keeping of the tracks clear to avoid accident, and the extreme care thus taken to protect the public from possible injury interferes seriously with the freight traffic."

The running of this train will not be renewed until the congestion of freight is fully relieved.

MAN LYING UNCONSCIOUS WITH VERY LITTLE HOPE THAT HE WILL RECOVER

David Laing Fell While Chasing a Companion
to Chastise Him and Was Dangerously Hurt.

David Laing is lying in a room at the boarding house of Mrs. M. L. Marquis, in Church alley, between Washington and Market streets, in an unconscious condition, with the chances, the physicians say, 10 to 7 against his recovery.

Laing is a single man, 43 years of age, and has been boarding at Mrs. Marquis' for a month. He is employed in the slip house at the Goodwin pottery, but formerly worked in Chester. It is stated that he is a native of Meadville, Pa.

Saturday night Laing and a number of other men who board at the house were drinking heavily. Laing was in a quarrelsome mood and tried to engage in a fight with George Flynn, a teamster in the employ of the Pilgrim Coal company. Trouble was averted for the time, but yesterday morning when Flynn entered the upstairs room occupied by Laing, the latter renewed the quarrel and Mrs. Marquis requested Flynn to leave the place for the time. Laing was very drunk.

Flynn did as requested and had reached the alley when he heard a crash, and turning, saw Laing sprawling at the foot of the stairway, with blood pouring from his nose and ears.

STRIKE OF MINERS AT MARQUET WORKS

NEARLY 100 COAL DIGGERS QUIT
VERY SUDDENLY.

Men Say They Don't Got Union Wages.
Company Disputes
This.

The Marquet Coal company, of New Cumberland, has a strike on its hands. Saturday afternoon 93 miners employed by the company, as well as all the drivers and day men connected with the mine, walked out. There has been trouble between the men and the company for about two years. However, the demands of the miners have always been put off and no settlement effected. The claim of the men is that they are not receiving the union scale of wages. They have been demanding it for so long without receiving any satisfaction that they decided they would work no longer till the difficulty was adjusted. Accordingly all quit work.

The officials of the company claim they are paying the union scale for the kind of coal they are mining and refuse to listen to the complaints of the strikers. As soon as the strike was declared agents were sent out to the various cities and towns around in search of miners. One came to this city and secured seven men who went there today to begin work. He expects to secure more men at Salineville. Later he will go to Cleveland, and there hopes to find all the men necessary.

The threat has been made that the striking miners will refuse to permit the new men to take up the work. It is not thought, however, that serious trouble will result. For a long time the tin mill at Chester was supplied with coal from these mines and at first it was thought that it would be compelled to close down if the strike was not settled at once. Investigation showed that the mill is not depending on its coal supply from this mine, and the work there will not be interrupted.

TO CAMP AT PORT HURON

Glit Edge Club Proposes to Spend 30 Days at the Resort Next Summer.

The members of the Glit Edge Camping club of this city held a special meeting yesterday afternoon in their rooms in the Elbert building for the purpose of completing arrangements for their annual outing, to be held in July. The attendance of the membership was large and they were all enthusiastic over the prospects for a good time again, this summer. Last

Mrs. Marquis, who was standing at the landing at the top of the stairway, states that Laing had started in pursuit of Flynn and that just as he reached the head of the stairs tripped and fell headlong. The front door was partly open and it is thought that Laing's head struck it. Other boarders tell the same story.

Flynn was sent to summon a physician, while several of the men carried Laing to his room. Dr. W. W. Hamilton, who responded, found the injured man in an unconscious condition. There had been a hemorrhage in which a quart of blood had been lost through the nose and ears and a contusion was found over the petrous portion of the temporal bone. From these symptoms the physician's diagnosis was that the petrous portion of the temporal bone had been fractured. Owing to the intoxicated condition of the injured man but little could be done for him at the time.

The township trustees were notified of the affair and as Laing is without the means of support they took the case in charge and called in O. D. Shay, the township physician. Dr. Shay's examination verified the diagnosis as given above, and he stated this morning that there is very little hope of Laing's recovery.

Laing had not regained consciousness at a late hour this afternoon.

year the club spent three weeks in July around Port Huron, Mich. Yesterday they decided to spend an entire month this summer at the same place.

They expect to leave for Port Huron on July 3 and will remain about 30 days. A complete new outfit is to be purchased, including 10 tents and all the camping paraphernalia necessary. It is the intention of taking only the regular members of the club on this expedition, and all members who expect to make the trip are expected to deposit $5 with the treasurer not later than the 10th of this month. Last year's outing was a success in every way, but preparations are being made so that this year's will far eclipse it in every way.

FINED FOR DISTURBING A RELIGIOUS MEETING

O. L. Mahon Taken Into Custody at
Salvation Army Barracks
And Fined.

While acting in a disorderly manner at the Salvation Army barracks on Fourth street last evening, O. L. Mahon was arrested by Officer Saulsberry and taken to central police station, where he placed sufficient money to secure his appearance before the mayor today.

At the hearing he pleaded guilty to the charge of disorderly conduct and was fined $2 and costs. It was through the leniency of Adjutant A. E. Snider, of the barracks, that he escaped with so light a fine. Mr. Snider pleaded for the young man, stating that he did not want him fined for disturbing a religious meeting, thinking the other serious enough.

BIG FIRE AT BRILLIANT

Stuebenville, February 2.—Fire at Brilliant that broke out in the building occupied by William Myers' saloon destroyed two frame buildings occupied by Myers & Kress and Ralston's saloons, a double brick building occupied by Mrs. Catherine Boyles as a residence and Miss Hattie Spaulding's millinery store.

Very little was saved out of any of the business portion and several buildings, including the postoffice, were only saved after hard work by bucket lines. The loss will reach $15,000.

A SORRY CROWD BEFORE THE MAYOR

NOT MUCH PROFIT IN THE BUNCH LINED UP TODAY.

Two Men Arrested For Disturbing a
Dance—Others Charged With Drunkennes.

"What is the lineup this morning?" asked a reporter of Mayor Davidson as he entered the executive's sanctum. "Oh! there are plenty of slips here on my desk and several offenders behind the bars, but they are not the kind that help my purse to bulge or make a smile flit across my countenance," replied he. "I tell you they are dead heads, the majority of them, and I don't like to have such visitors."

Officer Dawson played a lone hand and figured in the first arrests of Saturday evening. He was patrolling his beat in the Diamond at about 11 o'clock when rounds issuing from the Seaton block, in which there was being held a dance, attracted his attention. Rushing up to the dancing parlors he gained admittance and caught two young men, John Haymaker and A. C. Stewart, who are said to be doing all in their power to produce a genuine rough house. The fellows were immediately placed under arrest and were given a ride to central station. They furnished security and will answer for their alleged misdemeanor this evening.

Teedie Lodge drank Saturday until it was simply an impossibility for him to navigate or keep his eyelids apart. He did not want to sleep among the horses or cattle in any man's barn and was on the hunt for a first class hotel when, becoming blinded, he accidentally fell into among the very class that he abhors. He was picked up by Officer Woods while sleeping soundly in a haymow of a stable. The mayor gave him a chance to get out and secure work.

Harley Reed was carrying a heavy load when run across by Officer Dunn. He was locked up and a charge of drunkenness filed against him. Harry Martin, of Wellsville, had the same drunk and he was taken in tow by Officer Fisher. Another of a similar class was Jim Smith who fell into the clutches of Officer McDermott.

STRANDED THESPIANS DROP THEIR LAWSUIT

HUNTING FOR HAWKINS COMPANY LEAVES THE CITY.

Miss Mabel Martin Jubilant Over the Course of Events—Has Learned a Lesson.

The stranded, disbanded "Hunting for Hawkins" show troupe has left the city. A part of them, the plaintiffs in the attachment proceedings tried in Squire McCarron's court, departed on the morning train. Miss Mabel Martin, Mr. Raphael and the rest took leave in the evening. They all returned to their homes in New York city.

By their sudden departure the trial, which would have consumed all of today and a part of tomorrow, was called off. It is supposed that the plaintiffs concluded that the evidence in favor of Miss Martin was stronger than they were able to produce and concluded to get out before a hotel bill of enormous proportions piled up against them.

During all of yesterday there was not a more jubilant person in the city than the pool room queen. She felt that she had been exonerated from all suspicion of roguery by the dropping of the case by the plaintiffs and it was with a light heart that she commenced her journey for home and friends where she will likely start anew in her chosen profession. She will not, however, ever go with a crowd of alleged showmen who are anxious for experience in real theatrical life. She learned a lesson and avowed that she will profit by it. Such actors, she avers, are a dangerous set of people to get entangled with, and after this she will either star on her own reputation or not at all.

TOWBOATS COLLIDED WITH SERIOUS RESULT

Three Boats Were Sunk And 60,000 Bushels of Coal Lost in the Smashup.

An exciting experience was witnessed last night about 8 o'clock when two tow boats collided opposite Walker's landing. The Ed. Roberts was tied up at the landing and the Joe Walton was trying to come up to the landing when the accident happened. The Joe Walton in some manner got from under control of those in charge and swung around directly at the Ed. Roberts. The latter was unable to get away and the result was that two coal boats and one fuel flat went down in the river. The three boats which sank had about 60,000 bushels of coal on board.

Each tow boat was loaded with twelve coal boats and a number of fuel flats. Two skiffs were lost and several of the crews had narrow escapes from drowning. At the time of the accident it was very dark and it was almost impossible for the crews to see just what was taking place. The loss will reach many thousand dollars.

It was beautifully decorated, contains the insignia of the order and was made by the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles company, of East Liverpool. The lodge expressed its appreciation of the gift. Mr. Deidrick has been a member of the Columbus lodge ten years.

A STORE INVADED BY SHOPLIFTERS

Organized Gang Sought to Loot
a Prominent Business Place.

THEIR EFFORTS WERE VAIN

Owing to the Vigilance of Owners And Employees—Though Caught in the Act They Were Suffered to Go Free With a Warning.

While the Bee Hive store on Sixth street was crowded until standing room was at a premium early Saturday evening an organized quintet of shoplifters forced their way through the throngs and made bold attempts at carrying off goods amounting to several hundred dollars. The proprietors and clerks were experiencing the busiest time in months and the daring thieves were foiled in their game only by mere chance.

The band was composed of four women and a man. Their mode of action was undoubtedly pre-arranged. Instead of filing into the store together they straggled in one at a time, two going to the rear, where the cloak department is located, one stopping in the center at the remnant counter and two devoting their attention to the glove counter, near the front entrance.

The first couple, the man and the woman, chose the rear. They spent considerable time in examining a number of expensive furs. Neither was noticed particularly and when the woman started out more than likely she would have made good her escape but for Fred Koch, a member of the firm, who detected the end of a fur hanging underneath a long cape worn by her. He immediately started toward her and it was a merry chase that she gave him around the counter a number of times. It is supposed that she did this to confuse Mr. Koch, but he proved to be not of that kind.

After he had followed her for a few minutes she finally stopped, having in the meantime attempted to get rid of the furs. Seeing that she was caught she as a last resort pulled the furs from her shoulders, pushed the article at her male companion and said:

"Here, I want this cape; buy it for me."

Mr. Koch knew that she had been trying to steal it, and not waiting for the supposed husband to reply took the cape and replaced it on the counter. He then gave the bold pair orders to vacate. They readily complied and were followed to the door by another member of the firm. While returning this member noticed the woman at the remnant counter awkwardly trying to conceal a large amount of the pieces under her cloak. He accused her of shoplifting. Like the others she did not protest and seemed very grateful to the proprietor for allowing her to go in peace.

Harvey had she left until the two who had stopped at the glove counter were detected in slipping articles under their capes. Mercy was again displayed and they were allowed to depart.

The lady clerks and others in the store stood aghast at the nerve and effrontery displayed by the five people. Their work was well planned and was carried on in a manner unprecedented in this city. The people are well known and could be turned over to the police at any time, but the proprietors have decided to allow them their liberty, considering that their game was nipped in the bud and no one is the loser.

TRUSTEE FOR $300 000 ASKS TO BE RELIEVED

Trust Company Wants to Resign Its
Trusteeship For Columbiana
Telephone Company.

Lisbon, February 2.—(Special)—The Euclid Avenue Trust and Savings company, a Cleveland corporation, has filed a petition in regard to the Columbiana County Telephone company, asking the court to accept its resignation as trustee of a mortgage for $300,000 against the telephone company.

The plaintiff company says it has been conducting a banking and trust business in Cleveland and that in June 29, 1900, the Columbiana County Telephone company gave a mortgage or deed of trust, conveying to the plaintiff, as trustees, all its rights,

ROW ON A STREET CAR ON THE CALCUTTA ROAD FOLLOWED BY A HOLDUP

A Desperate Gang Which Caused Terror and Excitement in That Section of the City.

Desperadoes and highwaymen in fight with desperation and only succeeded in ejecting the men after the latter had received many hard blows. After the men were off the car it resumed the trip and no further trouble was encountered until the return trip was being made. The car had reached the Riverview cemetery when a fusillade of rocks, clubs and other missiles rained again and about the car. No destruction was wrought by the fierce onslaught except that a glass in the vestibule was broken.

A few hours later at the corner of Bradshaw avenue Charles L. McCoy, a linotype operator in the employ of the News Review, was attacked by a bold gang of men, and it is thought that they were the same who caused the trouble on the car.

McCoy was returning to his home from Pittsburg and was walking up Bradshaw avenue unsuspecting interruption. He was taken much by surprise when two men rushed in front of him and demanded that he throw up his hands. He did not comply with the demand soon enough for the daring robbers and one of them struck him a heavy blow on the head, following it with another. The assaulted man was soon overpowered and compelled to stand and watch them search his pockets. They succeeded in robbing him of $12 and then ran with all speed up the hill.

Remonstrating with them to no avail he attempted to remove them from the car. At this juncture he was met with strong opposition. The men became furious and flew at the conductor like enraged animals. He did his best in defense, but was not their equal and had the motorman not mixed in the fray with his controller handle would doubtless have received a terrible beating. For several minutes the conductor and motorman were compelled to property and franchises to secure the payment of the Telephone company's first mortgage bonds, aggregating $300,000. This mortgage was recorded in Mahoning, Columbiana and Jefferson counties in Ohio, and Hancock county, in West Virginia, and as a chattel mortgage in Perry township, Columbiana county.

Although executed January 29, 1900, the mortgage was dated March 1, 1900. On January 16, 1902, the plaintiff company made an assignment to Frank H. Ginn in the court of insolvency, of Cuyahoga county, but the telephone company's entire issue of bonds had been executed prior to that time.

By reason of its assignment, the plaintiff company alleges it has been unable to perform the duties of trustee, and therefore resigns its trust as custodian of such mortgage. Blandin, Rice & Ginn, of Cleveland, are the plaintiff's attorneys.

MCGARRY DECIDES TO QUIT THE RACE

CITY SOLICITOR NOT A CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION.

He Will, However, Remain in the Contest for the County
Prosecutorship.

M. J. McGarry today announces his retirement from the candidacy for the city solicitorship in the following statement:

In view of the fact that I have for the past few years been an avowed candidate for prosecuting attorney of Columbiana county, Ohio, and that my many friends, both in East Liverpool and Columbiana county, insist that I give them the opportunity to nominate me, I feel that I should heed their wishes, and as the county campaign will take my undivided attention, I have concluded to withdraw from the contest for city solicitor and remain in the contest for prosecuting attorney.

The progress which I have made in my chosen profession is due almost entirely to the staunch support of my many friends and I feel that my future is entirely safe in their hands and that the best way to show my appreciation for what they have done for me in the past is to listen to their advice and to submit to their commands at the present.

M. J. MCGARRY.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

POTTERY IN ENGLAND.

In a recent lecture before the Municipal Association of 'Thomas' Ward Mr. W. H. Saunders presented the following interesting pottery history:

"The term pottery is supposed to be derived from the word 'Potterion,' the drinking cup of the Greeks, and the art of pottery making in China is said to date back as far as 2599 B. C. Porcelain is supposed to be derived from 'Porcelana,' an obscure Portuguese word, while that known as 'hard porcelain' is said to have been invented in China about 185 B. C. During the Middle Ages Staffordshire was found to be rich in the varied clays suitable to the potter's art and the making of tiles and pipkins, and the early makers of the county were called pot-makers. Delft ware was imported at an early date, while the first precise information relative to porcelain was obtained by that enterprising old traveler Marco Polo, this ware being brought back by him after his travels in China. After some interesting information concerning the early English ware, the lecturer told of Josiah Wedgwood, who did so much to advance the art in that country, and some of whose productions so pleased Queen Charlotte that they were called Queen's ware. Up to this time the elegant productions of the continent were for the rich alone, but Wedgwood changed all this, and the reasonable price of his articles caused them to be so much sought after from abroad that it was said that a traveler could journey from Calais to St. Petersburg and at every town dine off Wedgwood. Wedgwood's success was the result of experiments and trials conducted with preserving industry on scientific principles, and it might be said of him that he called into existence the spirit of Greek art. His productions were made of English clay, by English workmen, without state aid or subsidy, without foreign inspiration, and, as his epitaph records, he converted a rude and inconsiderable manufacture into an elegant art and important part of national commerce. Mr. Saunders having told how a gentleman named Mr. Felix Joseph interested himself in the Portsmouth museum, then destitute of samples of ware, went on to deal with punchbowls, and told how the largest amount of punch was said to have been brewed by Admiral Russell, then in command of the Mediterranean fleet at Alicante. This gigantic brewing consisted of four hogshead of brandy, one pipe of Malaga, twenty gallons of lime juice, thirteen hundred-weight of sugar, five pounds of nutmegs, three hundred toasted biscuits, and eight hogshead of water. It was served in a great marble fountain, while in a small boat built for that purpose a ship's boy rode about to assist in filling the cups for three thousand people. In the 'good old days' punchbowls were used as baptismal founts."

POTTERY IN COLORADO.

What will be a unique industry is to be started in Canon City, Col., and will consist of the manufacture of flower pots and other small articles of pottery. At the present time there is not a factory of this kind between the Mississippi river and Utah. In the vicinity of the pottery many rich clay beds have been tested, which show the earth contains the proper ingredients for the making of first-class pottery.

NEW FRENCH METHOD.

High temperature firing in opposition to the ordinary faience and porcelain firing is now being greatly exploited by the Sevres China company, of France. M. Taxile Doat, the well known potter, who has been connected with the plant for the past 25 years, states in a well-known art magazine that he is of the opinion that it has been by this method of high temperature firing that the Chinese have produced the captivating gems in art which they have turned out. All the western fabrications have so far been more or less a step forward toward this goal. With the enterprise and risk-all of the American character, in a few years beautiful and true ceramics will be produced in this country and those who still remain outside of the irresistible movement toward high temperature decorations, will be left hopelessly behind.

NOTES OF THE POTTERIES.

Alex Phillips, of the Thompson ghost, was off sick the latter part of last week.

George Hamilton, of the ghost end at the Thompson, and his father have purchased the old Croft homestead on Pleasant Heights and will move there the latter part of the month. The property consists of a house, barn and two acres of ground.

The officers of No. 9 are now bonded in a trust company instead of by individuals as formerly, the change being made at the last meeting. Although it has not been definitely decided it is pretty well understood that the local will hold a social session some time during this month.

You won't even think of cod liver oil when you are taking Hagee's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil. It contains all the nutritive, re-constructive elements, but none of the disagreeable features—no grease or fishy flavor. A great body and flesh builder.

AZELDA

Azelda, February 2.—L. Cope is still confined to the house with grip.

There was no school Tuesday and Wednesday, owing to the teacher being sick.

Miss Florence Cope is at Salem where she will spend two weeks with relatives.

Mrs. Jane Pringle, of Rogers, visited her sister, Mrs. James Cope, last week.

Hays Crawford and family are preparing to move near Youngstown in a short time.

A. C. Finney, who has been sick for six weeks, is yet unable to be out. There was quite an interest taken in the spelling match at Fairmount Monday night, but Dutchtown came out best.

A Prisoner in Her House.

Mrs. W. H. Lavha, of 1001 Agnes avenue, Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe hoarseness and at times a hard cough, which she says, "Would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeable results. A friend gave me a part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured. From this time on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will be in my house constantly." This remedy is for sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

SPECIAL MEETINGS FULL OF PROMISE

Series at the First Presbyterian Church Started Off Most Auspiciously.

PROF. WEEDEN'S SINGING

Inspiring And Full of Power—The Pastor Speaks Timely Words On the Need of Co-operation And a Union of Effort.

The first of what promises to be a most interesting and profitable series of evangelistic meetings was held at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning. Rev. C. G. Jordan, the pastor, has arranged the services with special care, and they can but result in the accomplishment of good. Prof. W. S. Weeden, the most celebrated soloist in the land, is assisting Rev. Mr. Jordan, which insures the success of this most important department of the work.

Prof. Weeden possesses a voice of extraordinary sweetness, and his ability to move his hearers through the power of song is wonderful. In addition to directing the large choir of 50 voices yesterday, the gentleman sang two beautiful solos, one at the beginning and another at the close of the discourse.

The attendance at the meeting of yesterday morning was very large, and indicated that the members of the congregation are awake to the necessity of doing their part toward making the meetings successful in the name of the Master.

The scripture lesson was read by the pastor and was taken from St. Luke, a portion of the 24th chapter being given. Before beginning his sermon Rev. Mr. Jordan stated he desired to change an announcement which had been made previously. It had been arranged to hold a meeting of the sewing circle on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, but instead he took the liberty to announce that the ladies would meet at that time for prayer and not to stitch. After an hour spent in prayer they could sew if they wished, but this much time he was sure could be spent more profitably in prayer. He hoped the members of the sewing circle would not rebel too strongly, but intimated it would be so carried out whether they rebelled or not.

"Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, beginning at Jerusalem," was the text chosen, being a part of two verses, one in the 25th chapter of St. Luke and the other in St. Matthew.

Rev. Mr. Jordan in his usual powerful, earnest manner moved his hearers as they have perhaps never before.

JUST IN TIME

Down in Health And Strength—Nervous—Irritable—Ache All Over—A Depressed Condition Rapidly Changed.

Mr. B. L. Updegraff, of No. 169 Fifth street, East Liverpool, Ohio, says: "As a general and nerve tonic I can recommend Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' Drug Store. I was at the time feeling run down and nervous—not up to the mark in health and needed a tonic. The medicine did its work nicely and I regained tone, strength and energy again."

been impressed. The starting point set forth in the text at which the gospel was to be preached he took to mean this church, and instead of Jerusalem he would for the time begin his teaching in the sanctuary. If this call had been made by the president of the United States hundreds of young men would respond, and as evidence of the loyalty and patriotism of the people President McKinley's appeal for men to go to Cuba to drive out the Spanish was recalled. The call in this case is made, not by a president, not by a ruler of a single nation, but by the King of Kings. Are we ready to go? Will we stand back and wait for another invitation? The importance of all responding and taking part in the work was pointed out. No excuses should be made either by merchant, mechanic or professional men. No man's worldly affairs should stand in the way of his duties to his Master.

A number of instances were cited illustrating in a vivid manner how Christ and the church were neglected and how easy it was for careless people to become estranged from God and their duties. The work to be done the coming two weeks is not for the singer and the pastor, but everyone must do his share and contribute his mite. It is not the eloquence of a preacher nor the impressiveness of a song alone that brings souls to Christ. The pastor here related the experience of an acquaintance who had been brought to God through the prayers of a simple farmer while engaged in some of his humble pursuits upon the farm. "If you can't work any other way, you can pray," said the pastor. "And you can go a little further and ask your neighbor and your friend what they are going to do with their souls." God's help must also be secured. "Little good can be accomplished, even in Jerusalem, without the aid of God.

God will only be too willing to help if you could only realize how easy it is to enlist His aid. There is work for all. The boys and girls must be taken care of and saved from destruction. Go out and invite them to these meetings. Go out as earnest Christians and bring them in.

"I believe all will contribute their share, and I believe God will abundantly bless these meetings because we have asked Him earnestly and honestly to do so." The sermon was in every sense a preliminary one, calculated to awaken the congregation to a sense of their duties in the coming meetings. Rev. Mr. Jordan endeavored to show how powerless he would be and how fruitless would be the efforts of the singers to move people to better thoughts and a new life, without the co-operation and willing aid of the entire congregation. That he succeeded admirably in his efforts to do this was evidenced in many ways before the morning meeting was brought to a close.

There are many reasons for the belief that the meetings so carefully planned, and begun under such favorable conditions will result in great and lasting good.

Prof. Weeden's last solo was a beautiful one, and was rendered in a manner which appealed to every hearer. His brief talks, given almost invariably at the close of a selection, are characteristic, and his earnestness never fails to impress. Prof. Weeden is a true evangelist. He not only sings perfectly but has a fascinating style of delivery when talking which causes one to wonder whether it would not have been better for the cause of Christianity had he chosen the pulpit instead of the choir.

The meetings will continue during the next two weeks, services being conducted each evening. The pastor will be ably assisted, beginning to-night, and there is every indication that the series will be well attended and interesting.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy will Cure You if a Cure is Possible.

Doctors are not infallible and there are many instances where they have decided a case was hopeless and then the patients astonished everyone by getting well and the cause of their cure was Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. A case in point is that of James Lettice of Canajoharie, N. Y., who writes:

"Some years ago I was attacked with pains in my back and side that were fearful in the extreme. I could not control my kidneys at all and what came from them was mucous and blood. I was in a terrible state and suffered intensely. A prominent physician of Albany, N. Y., decided that an operation was all that would save me. I dreaded that and commenced to take Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. I felt better almost instantly. When I had taken about two bottles, the flow from the bladder was much clearer, the pain stopped, and I was saved from the surgeon's knife and am now well."

Dr. W. H. Morse, the famous physician of Westfield, N. J., has this to say of this great medicine:

"I have known it to cure chronic inflammation of the kidneys, where the attending physician pronounced the case incurable. No form of kidney, liver, bladder or blood disease, or the distressing sicknesses so common to women, can long withstand the great curative power of this famous specific. Its record of cures has made it famous in medical circles everywhere."

The reason for failure given is three fold: First, the law protecting the birds was not enforced, and unscrupulous hunters killed them off before they could get a start. Second, the method of selecting the best birds and sending them out from the hatchery, leaving only the scrubs for propagating purposes, caused the flock to deteriorate. Third, the system of inbreeding practiced ever since the attempt to raise pheasants, was ruinous, resulting in a great many of the eggs produced being sterile.

EAST END

DECISION DAY

FOR ENDEAVORERS

A Notable Feature of Especially Interesting Services at Second Presbyterian Church.

A series of special meetings was begun yesterday at the second Presbyterian church in the East End. Splendid audiences were present at both services. The music at both services was specially prepared for the occasion and was fine. These services will continue for three weeks closing with communion February 22. Rev. H. N. Campbell will preach every evening this week.

Christian Endeavor day was observed in an appropriate manner at 6:30 last evening at the church. It was known as "Decision Day" and a good program had been prepared. After a responsive service interspersed with music eight little girls, members of the Junior society, sang, "Jesus Bids us Shine." T. F. Anderson spoke on the subject, "Christian Endeavor Day." He told of the origin and growth of the society from a humble beginning to its present prosperous condition. There are more than 60,000 societies in the country today and this number is being largely increased every year.

Mrs. W. E. Baird read an excellent paper on "A Time for Decision." She pointed out that youth was the time for a start in the Christian life and showed how statistics proved that very few persons began a religious life after the ages of 8 and 20. This was followed by a scripture reading and a hymn. "The Value of an Early Choice" was the title of another interesting paper read by Mrs. J. W. Grant. Misses Nellie Baird and Bertha Grant gave appropriate recitations which were followed by Miss Lida Farrar reading the poem, "Tomorrow."

The Juniors gave another song and then Rev. Crowe, the pastor, gave a short talk on "Decide Today." He asked all to accept the opportunity of today. This is the accepted time and none of us have any assurance that we may have another opportunity to accept the teachings of Christ. The offering was then taken and two new members were voted into the society. An excellent selection was given by a quartette which was followed by a hymn and benediction.

A large plate glass window in the department store of Frank Chambers, of Mulberry street, was broken early Sunday morning by some unknown person. It is not known whether the window was broken by accident or with the intention of stealing some valuable watches and jewelry left in the window. Two watches are missing from the window but at yet it is not known whether they were stolen or were sold sometime Saturday night.

War on Posters.

The small boys of the East End today started a war on posters, tearing down all sorts of bills and advertising matter, from telephone poles, telegraph poles and wherever they could find them. The notices of the churches and of the candidates suffered equally with other more ordinary forms of advertising. The matter will be reported to the police.

Interesting Revival Meetings.

The meetings at the Erie street M. E. church will continue with renewed interest this week as the district quartet will be present all the week. The meetings yesterday were largely attended and a number of conversions were reported. The quartet begins its work here tonight.

DUTY OF MAN
IN THE WORLD

The Christian's Mission to Persuade Men to Know and Heed the Truth.

PUNISHMENT IS CERTAIN

For Those Who Transgress God's Laws. The Noble Motives That Actuated Paul—An Able Sermon By Rev. Dr. J. C. Taggart.

The inclement weather yesterday had no noticeable effect on the churchgoers. Every edifice in the city open for the worship of God contained about the usual number at each service. Indeed, the day being in the midst of a general revival over the entire city considerably more than ordinary interest was manifested. For several weeks the ministers of the churches have been warning their congregations of the dire necessity and attitude of a decisive work for the upbuilding and teaching of God's divine laws.

It was this feeling of duty that prompted Rev. J. C. Taggart, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church, to choose the subject upon which he preached most ably on at the morning service. The subject was taken from II. Corinthians vi:11th and 14th verses, "Knowing therefore the terror of God, we persuade men." "For the love of Christ constraineth us."

In part Dr. Taggart said: "First of all, every person born into the world has a mission to perform. He has something to accomplish. It being a divine duty, we must know what we are supposed to accomplish. After learning that we have the motive we need the power and ability to carry out the command. What a great difference there would be in the world today if every one were filled with the same motive that filled the heart, soul and mind of Paul when he wrote his never dying epistle to the Corinthians! Paul was imbued with the motive of love and kindness for the entire world. At the present time the opportunities and facilities for doing the good that Paul accomplished and tried to accomplish are many times greater. If there was ever a time that the gospel of love and truth could be preached to the uttermost parts of the earth it is now. The facilities are at hand and execution is all that is necessary. It is the desire and command of God that the world be won for Christ, making the present time one of grave responsibilities for the church."

"There were two motives that compelled Paul to preach and give his entire time for the furtherance of the one great cause, and I hope, in the depths of my heart, that the same two motives may lead us and every one to exemplify the life of Paul by following his example. The two motives were the terror of the Lord and the love for Christ. Knowing the terror of the Lord, how can we do else than fear Him? How terrible is His wrath! There can be nothing more terrifying than the wrath of the lamb of God. We also are aware of the love of God for us. Having an understanding of both it is our duty to persuade men. And it is emphatically not our duty to preach hell and damnation. Such preaching should never be heard only in the tenderest terms. God will execute just judgment on men. He hates sin and will most assuredly punish it. It is the love of Christ that constraineth us; because we thus judge; that is, one died for all, then were all dead."

"It is true that wrath and love are much in contrast. They are, however, not contradictory. One that does not hate evil cannot love holiness. They go together with God. They are perfect in God. While we truly know God, we will not know terror and love. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; it is the principal part of wisdom. Solomon, the wisest of all men, said 'Fear God and keep His commandments.' We cannot appreciate the beauty of holiness unless we know fear, the penalties of sin. We thus see that fear is a motive and likewise love."

"For the framing of our minds fear and love, the products of God, are essential. Fear keeps us back from evil. Love impels us onward. Fear makes us watchful. Love makes us active. Both are from faith in God, the just, righteous and merciful One."

A young man, who on the crowded street of a city, rushed to the aid of an aged lady who had fallen, needed no further label as to his character. day afternoon, was in keeping with his growing reputation for eloquence and brilliancy. In fact many who were present and who have heard all of the series declare it excelled in many points. The lecturer has the faculty of adapting himself to the platform, even while in the midst of nightly meetings at which he occupies the pulpit. He talks as one young man to another with an eloquence and a logic that is convincing. It is his endeavor to bring to their notice the attractiveness of Christian manhood and win them from a life given over to insidious pleasures. That his efforts are bearing fruit cannot be doubted.

It is the fond dream of the magnate to hide his thoughts, of the rogue to hide his character, of the politician, to hide his principles, but he has none to hide. Young men gather in small groups in dark places and on street corners, in rooms barely comfortable, where they think they are enjoying club life; they engage in licentiousness and immoral practices and have the assurance to believe that their sins will never be discovered or they will be called upon to pay the penalty. No man succeeds in covering up himself. He is labeled by his deeds and is as an open book.

A great Boston newspaper, in advertising itself in and around the city, printed the photograph of a certain man. He was to go about the city, visiting public places and to the person who could identify him, was offered a reward of $50. In less than three days he was identified. It is impossible to go through life unlabeled. Some men take a glass of beer occasionally, thinking it a mild recreation but it requires only three or four visits to the saloon before he is labeled and it makes no difference whether he is from a palace or a cabin it requires no daring in prophecy as to his future. He is led into over-indulgence and heastly intoxication and the miserable end of his existence is indulgence in dissipation and return to old associations. He may succeed for a time but will think it smart and will return to it again, engaging more and more freely until his downfall. He places a tag on himself and on it can be read drunkenness, immorality, brutality and lust.

The business man sees a label on the young man who drinks, although the wearer may be blind to it. When you take the first glass you write a tag on yourself that all can read and men will turn away from you. The young man who carries a five cent novel does not realize that he is giving an insight into his entire inner life. The novel in his label, and one not to be envied. On a railroad journey the lecturer sat near a man who had just laid aside a book and when it was handed to him, by his request, he saw that the title was "Evolution of Economics of America," by Carroll D. Wright. "Teacher, are you?" was asked and the affirmative answer proved that the label suggested by the book had been correct.

A young man, who on the crowded street of a city, rushed to the aid of an aged lady who had fallen, needed no further label as to his character. There is a variety of lines by which a man may label himself. No man succeeds in hiding himself but is an open book and across his breast, as a broad stretching sign, his sins or good deeds, success or failures, are written. Can we afford to write the wrong label?

THE REASONABLE SERVICE

Dr. Jones' Sermon on the Necessity for Dealing Justly With All Men.

"Your reasonable service," a portion of the first verse of the 17th chapter of Romans was the subject of Rev. Dr. Jones' sermon yesterday morning at the First M. P. church. The reasonableness of the Christian religion was touched upon. God asks nothing but what is reasonable.

"God's word enjoins that we deal justly with all men. What is more reasonable?" The discourse was at once logical and impressive, and the impression made by the pastor was a lasting one. The service was well attended and the interest manifest.

AN ELOQUENT SERMON

By Rev. Edwin Weary Who Took One of the M. P. races As a Theme.

Rev. Edwin Weary's sermon at St. Stephen's Episcopal church yesterday morning was a characteristic one, bringing out all the good qualities in the excellent preacher's makeup.

From one of the greatest miracles which the Lord performed he took his text: "He rebuked the wind and sea and there was a great calm." Rev. Mr. Weary showed himself the profound student that he is, the subject giving him ample scope for a display of his best powers, both in eloquence and biblical research.

Prayer Meeting for Women.

It is announced that on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock a special prayer meeting for women will be held in the First Presbyterian church. To this meeting all women throughout the city are invited. Rev. Mr. McFadden is having charge of the services in the church this week and will also address this special meeting.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1903.

One highwayman has been caught and lodged in jail, but the evil work goes on just the same. It is plainly evident that the city is the abiding place of an element that must be got rid of before citizens can walk the streets in safety. Extra precautions and extra exertions should promptly be taken to that end. It is not necessary that the police should wait until somebody is assaulted and robbed before they act. They are authorized to arrest suspicious characters. Let them fill up the jail with such as answer to that description and then let workhouse sentences be unsparingly imposed upon such as deserve them. Such action would have a wholesome effect.

Make the evil doers afraid of the police, whose authority, it is plain, is neither feared nor respected now. As long as the hold-ups and assaults can take place and the perpetrators go scot free, the number of such outrages will continue to increase. The city has long had the reputation of being one where the laws were well enforced and good order maintained. It can and must sustain that reputation.

There is no necessity and no reason for allowing thugs and hoodlums to hold undisputed sway. More police are undoubtedly needed, but more diligence, vigilance and effort on the part of the present force might compensate

All Humors

Are impure matters which the skin, liver, kidneys and other organs can not take care of without help, there is such an accumulation of them.

They litter the whole system.

Pimples, boils, eczema and other eruptions, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, bilious turns, fits of indigestion, dull headaches and many other troubles are due to them.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

and Pills

Remove all humors, overcome all their effects, strengthen, tone and invigorate the whole system.

"I had salt rheum on my hands so that I could not work. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it drove out the humor. I continued its use till the sores disappeared." Mrs.

IRA O. BROWN, Rumford Falls, Me.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

Incidentally killing a number of inof-fensive persons in the adjacent village.

Whatever the purpose of the series of aggressions, it certainly includes more than the collection of debts from a feeble little republic. It is, therefore, essential that the United States, the real object of the combination of the three powers, should be prepared to assert its just position with dignity and firmness.

Two hundred excursionists have just had a narrow escape in the vicinity of Mount Pelee, the volcano having suddenly blown off its cap again. It is a queer place for picnic parties, but fools always appear to be fascinated by danger.

The entries for the Republican constituents have closed. The list is not an unusually long one, but it embraces enough good material from which to select an excellent ticket.

Dirty streets disgrace a town. The present mild weather affords an opportunity for this city to wipe out at least a portion of a long standing disgrace.

It should be taken advantage of.

The groundhog's prophecy is that winter will endure for six weeks.

But the fellow is quite as likely as

as the rest of the weather prophets to be mistaken.

The Ohio river will do its part to end the coal famine. What a blessing

a navigable stage of water all the time would be to the people of the great

Ohio valley!

The municipal candidate who does not pledge himself to work for cleaner streets is neglecting a chance to make a strong bid for popular support.

German's ambassador says his government will respect the Monroe doctrine. Evidently the kaiser has stand-ed it to some purpose.

The way to stop the defiance of law in this city is to give the offenders sentences that they won't forget in a hurry.

The kaiser may not be aware of it,

but he is strengthening American sentiment in favor of a stronger navy.

Delaware is a small state, but apparently too big for Mr. Addicks to carry around in his vest pocket.

Even the groundhog is out in opposition to dirty streets.

WELLSVILLE

HOUSE AND CONTENTS DAMAGED BY FIRE

An Exciting Blaze in a Wellsville Dwelling on Saturday Night.

Shortly before 6 o'clock Saturday evening fire broke out in the two-story frame dwelling on Liverpool street owned by A. R. Wells and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Thompson, which before it was extinguished, resulted in damaging the house and its contents to the extent of from $300 to $400.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson were both out for the evening and left the gas in the kitchen range turned up quite high. The floor underneath the stove caught fire. The flames gradually reached the walls and before the fire was discovered by neighbors, the entire kitchen was ablaze. The neighbors soon formed a bucket brigade, after breaking into the kitchen, and an alarm was sent in by telephone to police headquarters.

The bucket brigade failed to do very much towards putting out the fire, and by the time the fire department arrived the entire rear portion of the house was enveloped in flames and smoke. It took one half hour to put out the fire, but it was finally extinguished.

Considerable damage was done to the interior of the house by water, aside from the damage wrought by the flames and smoke. The household furniture and the building are totally covered by insurance.

POSTMASTER'S TERM NEAR TO THE END

Wellsville Expects to Know Today Who Will Be Chosen to the Office.

At midnight tomorrow night, Postmaster T. R. Snowden's term as postmaster of the city will be up, and it is now reported around the city that he is to be reappointed, although no legal authority can be gained for this report.

Many candidates have been making strenuous efforts to gain the appointment, but it is not yet known who the coming postmaster is to be. Those who are after the appointment are Squire A. G. MacKenzie, James Nolan, John F. McQueen and Charles R. MacGregor, Jr. Mr. Snowden, who desires to be reappointed, has an advantage in the race, in that he has been recommended to the president by Congressman Taylor. James Nolan seems to be the favored candidate of the people, although he may not win the appointment. The appointment will probably be made some time today or tomorrow.

Fine Entertainment.

Misses Porter, Johnson, Blackburn, and Tinker are the young ladies who comprise the famous Wagner Ladies' Quartet and who will give an entertainment at the United Presbyterian church Thursday evening of this week, under the auspices of the C. E. society. J. Clyde McCoy, the celebrated reader, will also be present that evening and assist in the entertainment, which will be one of the best of its kind ever given in this city. Too much cannot be said of the quartet. The ladies are all first class vocalists and come to this city highly recommended.

Funeral of Miss Caulfield.

The remains of Miss May Caulfield, who died Friday evening, were taken to Dayton, O., on the 6:30 train Saturday evening by the bereaved parents, where funeral services will be held and final interment made. Miss Caulfield was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Caulfield, of Fourteenth street. Mr. Caulfield is the superintendent of the Carroll-Porter Boiler works. Three other children survive.

C. M. B. A. Organized.

The ladies of the Roman Catholic Immaculate Conception church have banded together recently and formed an organization known as the Catholic Mutual Benefit association. The association is a fraternal order and the life of each member is insured in the sum of $1,000. There are at the present time 25 members. A charter has been applied for.

Lodges And Unions.

Local union No. 55, N. B. of O. P., the girls' local, will hold its regular meeting Monday evening in Potters' hall.

Tuesday evening local No. 24, N. B. of O. P., will hold its regular weekly meeting in Potters' hall.

Local union No. 384, Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paperhangers of America, will hold its regular bi-monthly meeting in Potters' hall on Wednesday evening.

Trades and Labor Council will hold its regular meeting Thursday evening. The committee appointed at the last regular meeting of Trades Council, to confer with the postmaster regarding the obtaining of free delivery in the city, will probably make its report at this meeting.

Friday evening local union No. 405, United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, will meet.

Friday evening Advance tent No. 501, Knights of the Macabees, will hold its regular meeting in Russell's hall on lower Main street. New members will be taken in.

Saturday evening Star of the Valley court, Tribe of Ben Hur, will hold its regular bi-monthly lodge meeting in the same hall.

Masonic Meeting.

Special communication No. 11 of Wellsville lodge, No. 180, F. and A. M., was held at 7 o'clock Saturday evening in the Masonic Temple hall on Main street. The meeting was called by Secretary George L. Apple. Work was done in the F. C. degree.

SOUTH SIDE

THE CHURCH FAIR A GRAND SUCCESS

Ladies of the Catholic Church Are Highly Elated And Will Try It Again Tonight.

The third night of the fair being held by the ladies of the Chester Catholic church proved how popular the idea was in this vicinity. Over 2,000 people attended the fair Saturday night and so much interest was manifested that it was decided to continue the fair again tonight. The financial success of the venture has far exceeded the fondest anticipations of anyone concerned. The ladies of the church have worked faithfully for three weeks arranging for the fair and their success shows that the management had been placed in competent hands.

Close to $3,000 will be realized, which will place the church on its feet financially right at the start. A literary program was given in the early part of the evening, and after it was finished the balance of the time was devoted to having a good time. It was about midnight when the crowds left and it required eight cars to bring the people across the river. Many had already left before that time, and it is estimated that more than half of the residents of Chester were present at some time in the evening. The windup of the fair tonight will probably draw a large crowd and will swell the receipts very materially. A gold watch which was raffled off by the ladies brought over $400 to the organization.

CANDIDATES PLENTIFUL FOR MUNICIPAL BERTHS

Council Will Make Its Choice from the Several Offices at Meeting Tonight.

At tonight's meeting of the newly elected council of Chester the sergeant, street commissioner and city solicitor will be chosen. At the time the call for the meeting was issued it was asked that all applications for these positions be filed not later than Saturday night, January 31.

So far the following names have been filed: For solicitor, George H. Ingram; sergeant, J. H. Allison; Thompson Allison, Henry Logan and F. F. Steadman; street commissioner, Samuel Allison. There may be other candidates that will make application today and it is expected that one or two more will try to be street commissioner. It is thought though that no other names will be received for the other offices. No inkling has been given out by the members of council as to who the lucky ones will be. Very little business will be transacted tonight aside from the election of these officials. Their salaries will probably be decided upon at the next meeting.

Mill Men Invited.

Rev. E. C. Lindsey, of the Chester M. E. church, is making a special effort to reach the mill men with the present series of revival meetings which he is now holding. Cards have been distributed among the employees of the mill, extending them a special invitation to be present. Mrs. Emma Maple Musser will enliven the meetings with her singing. These meetings have been attended by large crowds and great interest has been manifested.

For Another Term.

Congressman Doyner has recommended to the president the reappointment of J. B. Campbell as postmaster at New Cumberland, and the appointment will no doubt be made promptly. Mr. Campbell is a most efficient and popular postmaster.

CHESTER NOTES.

Miss Maggie Runyon has returned to her home in Wellsville after a short visit with her sister, Mrs. Frank Billman, of First street.

Tom Fowler is back at his place at the Chester grocery today, the first time for several weeks.

A BIG MONTH AT THE LIBRARY

Carnegie Institution Had a Greater Number of Patrons Than Ever Before.

An excellent report of the Carnegie public library has been given for the past month, showing a large increase in the patronage. During the month Miss Mary Hall, assistant librarian, was absent from her duties owing to the death of her mother. Her place was filled by Miss Ida Watson. The report for the month follows:

"The Carnegie library was open 39 days during the month of January, 26 days for the issue of books and four Sundays for reading. The library is well patronized on Sunday afternoons. The total number of books loaned was 4,451, an increase of 925 over the circulation of December. The attendance during the month was the largest in the history of the library, being 8,579."

The annual report of the Massillon library, which has 12,000 volumes, shows an average circulation of 136 per day, which is 25 less than the number loaned from the Carnegie library.

IT WILL BE A BLOW TO FARMERS' SOCIETIES

Law Providing a Tax to Benefit Agricultural Organizations Unconstitutional.
Columbus, February 2.—(Special.)—Attorney General Sheets has given an opinion which will cause consternation among the county agricultural societies of the state. Replying to a question submitted by the prosecutor of Lawrence county, he holds that a law providing for the payment of a per capita tax by each county to these associations is unconstitutional on the ground that the legislature has no power to enact a law requiring a county to pay money to a corporation. As many county agricultural societies are wholly dependent upon their remittance from the county, the opinion comes in the nature of a death blow to them. The Lawrence county society will bring suit to test the ruling, but the attorney general says he has no fear as to the result.

WILL DISCONTINUE FAST TRAIN.

Freight Congestion Will Stop Pennsylvania Special Between New York and Chicago Shortly.

Philadelphia, Feb. 2.—Discontinuance of the Pennsylvania special, the 20-hour train between New York and Chicago, over the Pennsylvania railroad and the Fort Wayne, will be ordered within a few days. Freight congestion is the cause for this action. For several months it has been found impossible to maintain on this train a fast schedule assigned to it without a freight sacrifice to freight traffic. S. M. Prevost, third vice president of the road, said when asked about the reported withdrawal of the train: "We have been doing everything in our power to facilitate the movement of coal, but find we cannot meet the demands on our system without sacrificing some of our fast trains. "On Thursday next the first move in this direction will be made, when the 20-hour special between New York and Chicago will be discontinued. "The high speed at which this train is run to make the schedule time necessitates the keeping of the tracks clear to avoid accident, and the extreme care thus taken to protect the public from possible injury interferes seriously with the freight traffic. "The running of this train will not be renewed until the congestion of freight is fully relieved."
